Vote of Confidence Denied Detective Heads

ALDINE CHAMBERS SCORES SOLICITOR AND GRAND JURORS

Police Board Votes to Call Upon Boykin to Produce Evidence Against Detectives as Soon as Compatible With Public Welfare.

GRAND JURY RESUMES PROBE THIS MORNING

New Victim Comes All the Way From Pennsylvania to Testify to Loss of Large Sum of Money as Result of Operations of Swindling Gang Here.

At a meeting of the board of police commissioners of Atlanta, which opened with excitement at times when Solicitor General John A. Boykin, the recently discharged Fulton county grand juror, and witnesses that had appeared before it during the swindle syndicate probe, were scathingly denounced by Aldine Chambers, the commissioners refused to adopt resolutions of confidence in the detective officers, recently recommended for discharge by the grand jury. On the other hand, the board voted by an overwhelming majority last night to call on the solicitor general to produce such evidence as he had against the detective officers, at such time as he considered compatible with the public welfare.

The meeting was marked by a spirited clash between Mayor Key, who supported the winning resolution and Commissioner Chambers, who took the position that the grand jury had gone beyond its functions by recommending that officers be discharged without presenting evidence to back up their recommendations.

ACCUSED MEN ARE PRESENT.

Chief of Detectives Poole and Detective Lieutenants Shaw and Wagner were present, as was Chief Beavers and a roomful of men who take an active interest in city politics. None of the officers under fire, however, were called during the session.

In the meantime the solicitor general went on vigorously with his inquiry. During the day a new victim from Pennsylvania appeared at his office, while the solicitor general announced that he is a long way from having completed his investigations and that it is likely that revelations of a more startling nature even than those presented Monday will be included in the new grand jury's report.

At the police board meeting there was no spirit of antagonism to the officers under fire. In fact, Mayor Key, who alone spoke in opposition to the vote of confidence in their integrity and efficiency, declared that no man would try them with more presumption of innocence than he would, "and," said the mayor dramatically, "if the evidence shows that these officers are being persecuted by any official or

Says She Forgot Body Of Man She Killed And Hid Beneath Bed

Kansas City, Mo., January 4.—A woman giving the name of Lilliana McGill, 29 years old, today called at police headquarters and told a story of killing a man Sunday night, placing the body under the bed and forgetting about it until today when she started to sweep her room. Patrolmen visited the room, in a small hotel and found the clothed body of a man about 35 years old. In a written statement, according to the police, the woman admitted killing the man. She said she only knew him as "Frank," and that he told her he was employed in a saloon. They quarreled, she said, and he struck her, whereupon she produced a revolver from a dresser drawer and shot him three times in the head. She said she had been in a dazed condition for the past two days and insisted that she forgot the tragedy entirely until today.

Thief Makes Promise To Return to Church After Robbing Choir

Chicago, January 4.—Parishioners of the Episcopal church at Waukegan, a fashionable north shore suburb, are mystified as to the identity of the elderly gentleman who occupied a front pew Sunday morning after he had visited the choir room and secured all the valuables from the overcoats of the choir members.

The thief was first espied by Mrs. Archibald Shaw, the choir mother, who saw him in the choir cloak room. He explained that he was attending the services and lost his way. Later he was noticed among the congregation.

As the man left the church in usher's hands with him and asked him to return. He promised to do so.

FORGE CONNECTING LINK IN HIGHWAY

Vote for Bond Issue by Marion County, Tennessee, Removes Last Barrier on Dixie Highway.

Chattanooga, Tenn., January 4.—(Special.)—The barrier between the north and the south was today broken when Marion county, Tennessee, voted to issue $250,000 in bonds to complete the Dixie highway through Tennessee.

This is regarded as the missing link between the north and the south and with the completion of this leg of the Dixie highway tourists can travel from either north or south in comfort. The state and federal government will match the amount appropriated by Marion county with $750,000, making one million dollars to be spent in this county this year.

This, with the projects outlined by the Georgia highway department, assures a paved road from the Great Lakes to the extreme end of Florida.

The section in Tennessee covered by this bond issue is across the Cumberland mountains, a sparsely settled county from which it has been difficult to secure the co-operation necessary under the Tennessee laws, to build.

The decisions were so sweeping as to include the entire state, applied alike to whites and blacks. The Massachusetts member told the force of his contention to the disgust of a score of more Yankee negroes, who were in the committee room to back up the Boston congressman. Congressman Larson further quoted the Georgia supreme court in holding that registration was not a phase of electoral qualification but an identification, and showed that in Georgia colored men voted in large numbers in the general elections, and in no instance could a challenge be proven when a colored man was regularly registered, and otherwise qualified under the federal statutes, thousands of them having voted in the past election as an evidence of their electoral privileges.

The census committee is not favorably inclined toward the Tinkham proposition, and while it is according him and his colored backers a respectful hearing, it will report out the illegal bill making the congressional representation in the next house 425 members, making an increase of 18 members, and giving to Georgia 13 members.

The Florida delegation in congress will be heard before the committee, and Representative Clark has sworn evidence, to refute every charge of discrimination brought by the colored advocates of the league, this evidence being affidavits direct from the individuals cited.

LARSEN DISPROVES TINKHAM'S CHARGE OF DISCRIMINATION

Georgia Congressman Reads Supreme Court Rulings in Refutation of Attack on Southern Election Laws.

CENSUS COMMITTEE FAYORS SIEGEL BILL

Florida Representative Reads Affidavits Denying the Charges Made by Negro League Officials.

BY JAMES A. HOLLOMAN.

Washington, January 4.—(Special.) Congressman Larsen, of Georgia, oldest southern member of the house committee on census, is directing and leading the fight against Congressman Tinkham's proposal to cut southern representation to a basis of voting population and particularly in refutation of the charge of the Massachusetts member that southern negroes are discriminated against, legally or otherwise, at the polls.

The hearing is creating widespread interest among southern members of congress, not because there is any danger of a cut in the southern apportionment being seriously considered, for such a proposition has not a ghost of a chance either in committee or on the floor of the house, but in vindication of the south against the charges of such men as Tinkham. And the officers of the National League for the Advancement of the Colored People, who are the inspiring influences behind this New Englander, who is seeking new force bill fame.

Tinkham on Stand.

Tinkham was personally on the state today and tonight, and brought to a final awakening, in his charge that registration or literacy tests were a violation of the constitution of the United States by Larsen, who presented United States supreme court decisions sustaining the state laws in every test case made on such pretext.

The Georgia congressman tonight cited the following among a number of other such decisions: United States supreme court in a Maryland case "while the right to vote for members of congress is not derived exclusively from the law of the state in which they are chosen, but has its foundation in the constitution and laws of the United States. The elector must be one entitled to vote under the state statute."

Also the case of Guinn vs. United States, in which the United States supreme court held "the establishment of an illiteracy test for exercise of suffrage is an exercise of the state of a lawful power vested in it, subject to the supervision of the federal courts. No law need be spent on the question of the violation of the illiteracy test considered alone, since, as we have seen, its establishment was an exercise of the state of a lawful power vested in it not subject to our supervision, and indeed its validity is admitted."

Decisions Sweeping.

The decisions were so sweeping as to include the entire state, applied alike to whites and blacks. The Massachusetts member told the force of his contention to the disgust of a score of more Yankee negroes, who were in the committee room to back up the Boston congressman. Congressman Larson further quoted the Georgia supreme court in holding that registration was not a phase of electoral qualification but an identification, and showed that in Georgia colored men voted in large numbers in the general elections, and in no instance could a challenge be proven when a colored man was regularly registered, and otherwise qualified under the federal statutes, thousands of them having voted in the past election as an evidence of their electoral privileges.

Stowaway Route To America Used By Mayor of Cork

Successor to Late Terence MacSwiney Lands at Newport News and Is Arrested by Immigration Officials.

Newport News, Va., January 4.—Peter J. MacSwiney, of New York, brother of the late Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, and Daniel O'Callaghan, present lord mayor of Cork, arrived in this port this evening as stowaways on the American steamer West Cannon, from Cork. Immediately upon arrival at the West Cannon, immigration authorities discovered the two men on board and, disregarding the claims of their identity, had them placed in jail pending investigation. MacSwiney carried a passport, and, cited by an American consul, could have made the trip openly, but chose to stowaway with Lord Mayor O'Callaghan. Upon showing his passport MacSwiney was released.

The lord mayor later was released from jail and allowed to take up his visit. According to MacSwiney, O'Callaghan is in this country at the invitation of the committee of one hundred at Washington investigating the Irish situation. Although O'Callaghan was not kept in jail, he is under guard furnished by immigration officials at his hotel.

The British would not allow the lord mayor to visit America, and he stowed away on the steamer, MacSwiney stated. "I could have come back as a passenger, but preferred to make the trip with him, as I now

SENATE COMMITTEE TO HOLD HEARINGS ON FORDNEY BILL

Advocates of Emergency Tariff Measure See Move to Kill the Bill in This Session.

Washington, January 4.—Stumbling blocks which the Fordney emergency tariff bill has encountered since reaching the senate continued today to rise up in its path. The chief of these appeared in the decision of the senate finance committee in a stormy executive session to hold hearings on the measure.

Advocates of the tariff measure believed the opponents hoped the committee's action would mean the death of the bill. Senator Smoot, republican, of Utah, was understood to have told the committee the move would cause the bill either to be killed in conference or "blasted to death on the senate floor." The projected hearings will begin Thursday and continue until next Tuesday and will be followed also by decision of the committee today, by hearings on the soldier compensation bill.

Finance Committee. The finance committee meeting today was the first over which Senator Penrose, its chairman, had presided in more than thirteen months. An attempt by Senator Simmons, democrat, North Carolina, to postpone indefinitely action on the tariff bill, developed the first clash. The motion lost, however, by two democrats, Senators Nugent, of Idaho, and Jones, of New Mexico, joining the republicans.

The question of holding open hearings committee members reported, brought on a second vote and exchanges in which "sharp words" were used. The motion to

GOMPERS ATTACKS BOYCOTT DECISION IN SUPREME COURT

Labor Leader Asserts the Highest Tribunal Has "Joined Forces With the Anti-Union Shop Movement."

CALLS DECISION BLOW TO HUMAN PROGRESS

President of American Labor Federation Declares Decision "In Accord With the Most Ardent Wishes of Predatory Greed."

St. Louis, Mo., January 4.—The decision of the United States supreme court yesterday relative to the so-called secondary boycott, was attacked in a formal statement here tonight by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who asserted the court has "joined forces with the anti-union shop movement."

The statement characterized the decision as "a blow at the movement for human freedom and progress," and declared it is thoroughly in accord with the most ardent wishes of predatory greed.

Mr. Gompers' statement in full follows: "The supreme court, in rendering its decision in the case of the Duplex Printing Press company versus the International Association of Machinists, has joined forces with the anti-union shop movement, the movement to undermine and destroy the only organs which the working people have for their protection."

"The decision of the majority justices of the supreme court, as attributed by the press to Justice Brandeis in the minor dissenting opinion that the whole movement of thirty years to place workers and employers on a basis of equality before the law had been nullified."

"I have not read the whole language of the decision, but I have seen sufficient to say that it is thoroughly in accord with the most ardent wishes of predatory greed, and should be highly satisfactory to those who exploit profits and deny the aspirations of humanity."

"It is a blow at the movement for human freedom and progress. It can only add to the protest of millions of one day have frequently been the decisions of the majority of the next day."

President Gompers was in St. Louis tonight en route from Washington to Mexico City to attend the Pan-American Federation of Labor convention.

'Damning Document' Against Sinn Fein Will Be Published

Irish Office Announces Government "White Paper," Now on Press, Giving Previously Withheld Evidence.

BY PERCY SARR.

United News Staff Correspondent, London, January 4.—An official statement by Sinn Fein that Eamon de Valera is in Ireland intimates that he is in communication with the Dail Eireann, probably on the outskirts of Dublin, and that he will issue a statement this week. Interest is thus added to reports that some peace move will be made this week.

The mystery of his whereabouts appears to be unsolved for Dublin Castle. The authorities there reported to the Irish office in London that after a very close search for a number of days they have been unable to find any information regarding his present hiding place or his re-entry into the country.

The Irish office announces that a sensational government White Paper is now on the presses, giving among other matters, much evidence hitherto held highly secret regarding an alleged plot between Germany and Sinn Fein during the war as well as evidence implicating Sinn Fein in acts of violence which have been charged to government forces as acts of reprisal.

"A damning document against Sinn Fein," is the government advance description of this White Paper.

NO INTERVENTION IN CUBA PLANNED, MINISTER IS TOLD

Cuban Minister to United States Given Assurances by Acting Secretary Davis of State Department.

Washington, January 4.—Assurances that the United States is not contemplating military intervention in Cuba were given today to the Cuban minister by Acting Secretary Davis, it was said at the state department.

The minister, Dr. Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, was said to have entered no protest from his government against the signing of Major General Crowder to Cuba to confer with President Menocal relative to the general situation in the island republic. The minister, after his call, however, expressed some slight objection to the action of the American government, declaring that neither his attitude nor that of his government, as set forth in a recent statement by him, had been altered. In that statement the minister had asserted that there were no grounds for his supervision of elections.

Talks With Wilson. Secretary Davis discussed with President Wilson the Cuban situation and the mission of General Crowder, just before the minister called at the department. The secretary told Dr. Cespedes there was little he could add to the president's statement relative to the work of General Crowder is expected to accomplish in Cuba, adding that he had confidence in the ability of the Cuban authorities and General Crowder to work out a satisfactory solution of the present political and financial difficulties.

Minister Cespedes made it clear that his main purpose in calling on Secretary Davis was to obtain more information regarding the situation.

WAR FINANCE BILL, PASSED BY HOUSE, NOW BECOMES LAW

Corporation Cannot Effectively Function, However, Until the President Appoints at Least One New Director.

VOTE FOR BILL 250, WITH 66 AGAINST

Overwhelming Vote of Both Houses Revives the War Finance Organization Over Veto of the President.

Washington, January 4.—President Wilson will have to fill at least one of the two vacancies on the board of directors of the revived war finance corporation before it can make any considerable number of loans for financing exports with a view to affording relief to the farming and other industries. This statement was made by treasury officials today after the resolution directing revival of the corporation became a law through its passage of the house over the president's veto.

The vote in the house to pass the resolution over the president's veto was nearly as ample as that cast yesterday in the senate. The house stood 250 for the measure against 66 for upholding the veto or 37 more than the required two-thirds majority. Seventeen democrats voted to sustain the veto, while for its passage there were 135 republicans, 14 democrats and one prohibitionist.

Treasury officials in further discussing adoption of the resolution said that while the department would prepare to function immediately as a result of the action of Congress, President Wilson would be required to appoint one or two new directors before anything could be done. The board of directors is composed of five members, and officials explained that a majority of four is required.

Stewart Demands Mercer's Apology Or His Removal

Savannah Mayor Writes Senator Smith Asking Probe of Mercer's Liquor Charges—"Dry" Officer Raps Alleged Whisky Syndicate.

Savannah, Ga., January 4.—(Special.)—Declaring that he had conferred with Colonel Jesse Mercer, state prohibition enforcement officer, with the police force and detectives of Savannah and dared him to repeat charges that officers are "crooked" or in "collusion" with the liquor dealers, and that Colonel Mercer had failed to specify definite charges, Mayor Stewart today wrote Senator Horne Smith, setting forth the case from his point of view and again demanding investigation to the end that Colonel Mercer apologize or be "fired."

Colonel Mercer is in Savannah for several days, probably until next Sunday, "waiting for something to happen," he stated he had been furnished a mass of information by citizens. He has spoken in the churches, conferred with officials and investigated the city and county police forces here.

Tuesday he virtually repeated the charges that lack of officers had in many places been the cause of so much violation of law and that Savannah might be suffering from something like that. In an interview he was strong in statements concerning the formidable organization of the liquor ring in Savannah, as well known, he stated, that one prominent woman was afraid to attend a meeting he held at the De Soto hotel last night, "because she was afraid liquor runners would burn her house" if it were known she had heard Mr. Mercer at the W. C. T. U. meeting.

He also declared that a former prominent business man, an ex-elderman, stated Tuesday that he was positively afraid to be seen in conference with state prohibition officers lest he should suffer at the hands of the alert and powerful organization entrenched in Savannah to violate the law.

Colonel Mercer said that the country commission at Chatham under the law could, by taking drastic steps do much toward wiping out the liquor ring in this city and county.

CAR CAUSED DEATH OF YOUNG SISTERS ON NEW YEAR'S EVE

Mrs. Emma Cooper, of 220 Luckie Street, Who Is Being Held in DeKalb County Jail Without Bond, Tells Officers of Accident.

PIRKLE NOT DRINKING AT TIME, SHE CLAIMS

Woman Denies That There Was Any Liquor in the Automobile—Officers Believe Driver Will Be Arrested Within a Short Time.

Mrs. Emma Cooper, 37 years old, of 220 Luckie street, is held in the DeKalb county jail on a murder charge, and officers are seeking Ben Pirkle, of Norcross, who, officials claim, Mrs. Cooper has admitted was the driver of the automobile which last Friday killed Mary and Madge Guinn, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Chester B. Guinn, in Oakhurst.

Mrs. Cooper was arrested Tuesday night at her home by City Detectives Hamilton and Hollingsworth. She was immediately taken to the DeKalb county jail in DeKalb, where Sheriff J. A. McCurdy says she made a complete confession to helping in the death car, and declared Pirkle was its driver.

The woman refused to see newspapermen, but officers claim that she told them that she has no knowledge of the whereabouts of Pirkle. She made no explanation of the attempt to elude officers after the accident, but stated that she and Pirkle had taken a ride to a point near East Lake and were returning when the accident occurred.

No Liquor, Says Woman.

Mrs. Cooper is said to have declared that there was no liquor in the death car and that if Pirkle was drinking she was unaware of the fact. DeKalb county authorities, it is understood, have information that Pirkle is married and that he and his wife have separated. It is also understood that Mrs. Cooper and Pirkle first met when he became a boarder at her Luckie street rooming house.

According to DeKalb officials, it is also understood that Pirkle is wanted in Hall county on a charge of resisting and wounding officers of the law after they had caught Pirkle with a liquor car. As a result of this incident, it is said, a reward of $200 is posted for Pirkle in that county.

Arrested at Home.

Mrs. Cooper was arrested Tuesday night at the rooming house she conducts on Luckie street, four days after the death of little Madge and Mary Frances Guinn. Detectives C. M. Hamilton and R. L. Hollingsworth, who made the arrest, state that the woman was receiving medical attention at the home, but this claim was denied by Miss Jeffcoat, 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Cooper by a former marriage.

The girl stated that her mother had no bruises on her body so far as she knew, that she had not been ill, that no doctor had visited the home so far as she knew and that her mother had not spoken of any accident.

It is understood that the police claim that Mrs. Cooper's hand was badly bruised.

The woman has been under the surveillance of the police for several days, but was not arrested as it was believed that the driver of the automobile would visit her at her home.

Did Not Mention Ride. She asserted that her mother made no mention of any automobile ride, nor did she act as though anything out of the ordinary had occurred.

Mrs. M. D. McDermott, another daughter, stated that her mother married Mr. Cooper, her second husband, several years ago, following a separation and divorce from T. J. Jeffcoat. She has for some months conducted a rooming house at 220 Luckie street. There is a third daughter, Lou Belle Jeffcoat.

The accident in which the two little girls, Madge and Mary Frances Guinn, daughters of Chester B. Guinn, of Oakdale, were mangled and killed occurred late Friday afternoon, when, according to statements by the woman, she and Pickle were returning from an automobile trip from a point near East Lake. It was asserted that the car was being driven at a terrific rate of speed when the tragedy occurred.

The police state that the man and woman who had occupied the automobile boarded a street car while about a hundred people gathered about the wrecked car and the bodies of the two little girls, and made their escape. They were last seen, it is said, getting off a Decatur car at Randolph street, in Atlanta. Witnesses asserted that a half-pint of liquor was found in the machine.

Learn Owner of Car. Detectives searching all through the night for the mysterious woman and man, learned that the death car was owned by Ernest Pickle, of Norcross. He proved that he had sold the car to his brother, L. F. Pickle, of Atlanta. The second Pickle proved that he was not in the car and then the detectives began their search for Ben, the third brother.

The bodies of the children were thrown high into the air when the speeding automobile dashed from the right side of East Lake drive and struck them. Madge, aged 11, was killed instantly. Mary Frances, aged 8, died a few minutes later, after she was carried into the residence of L. R. Lesesne, at 101 Second avenue. Bodies of both children were almost torn to pieces. After striking the children, the automobile smashed into the woods at the edge of the drive, and overturned after crashing to a halt upon a stump.

The children, who were delivering milk at the time of the accident, were walking close to the curb on the left of the drive toward Atlanta. There is no sidewalk. Each of the little girls carried a crate. Pieces of the broken bottles were afterward found thirty feet from where the girls were struck.

her home, she was turned over to DeKalb county officials immediately after her arrest. While at the police station she did not make a statement. She is now lodged in the DeKalb county jail at Decatur and is held without bail.

Miss Jeffcoat, the 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Cooper, asserted that it was not the custom of her mother to speak of her affairs to any of her daughters. She said that her mother might be in great trouble, and yet not tell them of her difficulties.

The girl declared that her mother was at home when she left for her work at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and that at 5:45 o'clock, the same afternoon, when she returned, her mother was at home then, too.

HUNDREDS PERISH IN OCEAN WRECK

Madrid, January 4.—Two hundred and fourteen persons lost their lives when the Spanish steamer Santa Isabel, was wrecked near Villa Garcia Saturday night, says a telegram received here from the governor of Pontevedra. Fifty-six persons were saved, but many of them were injured. Captain Manis Rigueldi, the captain of the vessel, was severely hurt and it is not expected he will recover. Many bodies have been washed ashore, and in several cases whole families were drowned. Among the saved was an infant three years old, whose parents are believed to be drowned.

Latest dispatches from Cadiz state the ship was driven on the rocks during a terrific storm, and the large number of deaths is attributed to the fact that the passengers had been confined to their cabins because of the violence of the tempest, many of them being asleep.

The majority of those rescued from the steamer were unable to speak on being landed, owing to their frightful experiences during the hours of clinging to wreckage in the terrific storm and cold.

Meager details indicate that the disaster occurred at 1:45 o'clock Sunday morning, when virtually every one on board was in bed.

W. A. Malone, supernumerary policeman, was Tuesday afternoon fined $6 by Recorder Johnson for an alleged insult to a young woman on North Pryor street Monday. Of ficer Malone testified that he had merely said, "Good evening," when he spoke to the girl, and intended no insult.

SURGEONS TO ADDRESS
BIG HEALTH MEETING

Gathering Will Be Part of Program Here of Clinical Congress.

A public health mass meeting, to be addressed by the leading surgical authorities of America, will be held at 8 o'clock Friday evening, January 14, as a chief feature of the clinical congress for Georgia, Florida and Alabama of the American College of Surgeons.

Dr. William S. Goldsmith, prominent surgeon of Atlanta, who is chairman of the Georgia state section of the American College of Surgeons, will preside, and the visitors will be welcomed by Mayor Key and Governor-elect Thomas W. Hardwick.

This mass meeting, it is pointed out by those in charge, is not for the medical men of Atlanta, but is for the people since all addresses will be delivered in simple, non-technical language. Through the assistance of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, which like other civic organizations of the city, has offered its unstinted aid in the summation of the meet, invitations are being mailed out to thousands of Atlantans.

Part of Annual Program.

The clinical congress is a part of the annual program of the American College of Surgeons, a national body composed of 5,000 of the nation's leading surgeons, having for its motives the advancement of surgery, the suppression of unnecessary surgery and the general development of the country's health. The expenses of this mass meeting here January 14, like all other expenses of the college, are borne by the members, and admission will be consequently free.

Plans for the meeting were fully discussed at a luncheon attended by a group of well-known Atlantans Tuesday at the Ansley hotel, and a program for the session was adopted. It was pointed out at this meeting that there was no drive feature to the meeting, that it was simply an effort to impress Atlantans generally with the importance of health conservation.

Among those who attended the meeting Tuesday were Mrs. John J. Spaulding, Dr. F. G. Hodgson, James B. Nevin, Clark Howell, Rev. James A. Horton, Rabbi David Marx, Dr. C. B. Wilmer, Asa G. Candler, Dr. W. S. Elkin, Mrs. Albert Thornton, Sr. George J. Yundt, Dr. Edgar C. Ballenger, Walker White, H. C. Worthen, J. L. Campbell, H. W. Cox, Mrs. E. M. Boykin, Mrs. T. T. Stevens, Mrs. Omar F. Elder.

T. E. Allen, representing the national organization of the American College of Surgeons, spoke briefly with regard to the plans of the college for the meeting here and in other cities, as this clinical congress is similar to those which will be held in all sections of the country during the next ten months. Addresses endorsing the idea and offering assistance to the project were made at the luncheon by Mr. Chandler, Father Hegon, Rabbi Marx, Mr. Howell, Mr. Nevin, Dr. Wilmer and Mrs. Thornton.

The program announced for the meeting follows:

William S. Goldsmith, M. D., chairman Georgia state section American College of Surgeons, presiding.
Invocation—Dr. B. F. Cox, president of Emory university.
Address of welcome—Mayor Key; Thomas W. Hardwick, governor-elect of Georgia.
"The American College of Surgeons," Franklin J. Martin, M. D., secretary general American College of Surgeons.
"Better Hospitals"—Rev. C. B. Moultrie, S. J., president Catholic Hospital association.
"Economic Value to Community of Preventive Work"—John Palmer Patek, M. D.

GILBERT SLATED
FOR LEADERSHIP OF COUNTY BOARD

The annual meeting and reorganization of the Fulton county commission will be effected this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the courthouse. The county has enjoyed one of the most successful years in its history under the present administration.

Dr. W. L. Gilbert, chairman of the board, Dr. W. L. Gilbert, chairman of finance; Paul Etheridge, chairman of public buildings; Charles G. Turner, chairman of police, and W. M. Poole, chairman of public buildings.

Owing to the fact that Dr. Gilbert served as vice chairman of the commission, it is generally understood that he will be elected chairman for 1921. Commissioner Poole's term of office expired with the new year and Captain George M. Hope, who was elected to succeed Mr. Poole, who did not stand for re-election, will go into office today.

Yaarab Temple Nobles.
Plan Social Events;
To Give Three Dances

In addition to the big ceremonial season to be held on Tuesday, January 25, the officials of Yaarab Temple are planning for a season of social events which will provide entertainment for the wives and sweethearts of the Shriners of this city.

The dance committee, of which Past Potentate Forrest Adair is chairman, announces that three dances will be held at Druid Hills Golf club, the dates for these events being January 19, February 16 and March 16. All Shriners are invited to these events, which will be strictly formal, and complimentary to the nobility.

Yaarab Temple announces a dance to be held in Part hall, Auditorium, on the evening of January 27. This dance will be for the benefit of the hospital, tickets of admission being $1.50, and the shrine card must be shown at the door.

Judging by the number of application already received by Recorder Argard the class for the ceremonial on January 25 will be unusually large. The last day for applications is January 10, and checks must be made out for $112.

NO-RAIN AND NO COLD
WEATHER FOR ATLANTA

No rain and no cold weather—this is the prospect for Wednesday, although C. F. von Herrmann, who gave vent to the foregoing prediction, says that we may not be surprised if we see a bit of the misty fog that is overhanging the city during Tuesday.

Wednesday will be a clearer day than Tuesday, but still there is no cold weather in sight, said he, for the fact is that there is no extremely cold weather in the entire country.

FEDERAL COURT HAS
HEAVY DOCKET HERE

Thirty-six jurors were drawn Monday by Judge Samuel H. Sibley for service during the coming session of the United States court; W. Paul Carpenter, first assistant district attorney, said that the coming session will be a busier one than the Atlanta federal court has had in five years. Asa G. Candler, Sr., was the first juror drawn Monday by Judge Sibley.

FOR BOY BANDITS

Minneapolis Boys Are Found Guilty, But Jury Recommends Offense Be Treated as Misdemeanor

A verdict of guilty of the charge of robbery was returned by a jury in the criminal division of the superior court Tuesday in the case of Stewart Taylor and Eric May, boy bandits of Minneapolis, who recently staged two hold-ups in local drug stores. The jury fixed the sentence at two years each, and recommended that Judge John D. Humphries treat the offense as a misdemeanor.

The boys entered pleas of not guilty and then took the witness stand to tell of their exploits in holding up the Parker-Brannan and the Stephens & Hawk drug stores.

They told the jury that they wanted to join the navy and that they started to Jacksonville, for that purpose, ran out of money in Atlanta and undertook to raise funds for the rest of the trip by "sticking up" the drug stores. The boys were arraigned on one charge, that of holding up the Stephens & Hawk drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, parents of Stewart, and Mrs. J. A. May, mother of Eric, testified to their sons' good character.

The firm of Douglas & Douglas represented the boys, and the prosecution was conducted by E. A. Stephens, assistant solicitor.

JUSTICES OF PEACE
ASKED TO TAKE OATH

Ordinary Thomas H. Jeffries asks all the justices of the peace in Fulton county who were elected in the general election held in December, to appear before him immediately and take the oath of office for a term. A number of these justices who were either elected or re-elected, have not yet been sworn in.

They will have to take the oath before Judge Jeffries at the court house. All domestic corporations and there are about 1,200 in Fulton county, that are required to pay special taxes, must register with Ordinary Jeffries. Very few of these corporations have registered to pay special taxes and the time limit for registration expires within a few days, according to Claude C. Mason, of the ordinary's office.

GALBRAITH SEEKS LIST OF SLACKERS

Washington, January 4.—Request that Secretary of War Baker and Attorney General Palmer be called before the house judiciary committee "to ascertain the facts surrounding the mysterious official silence which invests the war slacker situation," was made by F. W. Galbraith, national commander of the American Legion, today in a telegram to Representative Volstead, of Minnesota, the committee's chairman. The committee has before it the Watson bill to make non-applicable the statute of limitation in slacker cases.

Mr. Galbraith telegraphed Chairman Volstead that "he hoped no means would be spared to bring to light the reasons which have actuated the war department, or whatever branch of the government is responsible, in failing to publish the names of known slackers."

RAILWAY LABOR TOPIC OF HARDING TUESDAY

President-Elect Confers With Brotherhood Official on Problems.

Marion, Ohio, January 4.—W. N. Doak, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, came to Marion today at the request of President-elect Harding and discussed with him the general problem of railway labor. Whether specific policies were talked over was not revealed, but Mr. Doak said he expected to return later for a more exhaustive discussion of certain subjects taken up by the preliminary way. He expressed the opinion that Mr. Harding's attitude toward labor was a sympathetic one and that railway labor questions would not be found difficult under the next administration.

Another of those who saw Senator Harding during the day was Peter S. Grosscup, of Chicago, formerly a judge of the federal court of appeals. He gave his opinion on both national and international questions, making detailed suggestions for reorganization of the executive departments at Washington and for creation of an effective world court.

Laying aside temporarily the problems that have held his attention almost uninterruptedly for the past month, the president-elect with motor to Columbus tomorrow to be raised to a thirty-second degree Mason. He will be given all the degree about the fourth in a ceremony, which will include presentation of a diamond fraternity ring by the Masons of Marion, expected to occupy the entire day.

AID IS REQUESTED FOR DR. STEWART, JR.

Senator Harris Requests the State Department to Intervene for Georgian.

BY JAMES A. HOLLOMAN.
Washington, January 4.—Senator William J. Harris today requested the state department to assist in expediting the departure of Dr. Joseph S. Stewart, Jr., of Athens, now with Near East relief workers in Turkey. The first word of Dr. Stewart's safety came last week. A hen communication was reached with Urfa, Turkey. The Turkish nationalists are now detaining the relief workers, including Dr. Stewart, and Senator Harris desires the assistance of the American government. It is said that all Christians in the Turkish area under the nationalists are in danger.

Consul Jesse B. Jackson, stationed at Aleppo, Turkey, who is the closest American representative to Urfa, is now in Washington, and he assured Senator Harris that upon his return to Turkey, when he will start next week, all assistance possible will be granted Dr. Stewart.

Dr. Stewart had planned to start for America about December 1. He is the son of Dr. Stewart, the well-known educator at the University of Georgia.

NAVAL STORES EXPORT COMPANY IS PLANNED

Re-establishment of Foreign Trade Is Chief Object Sought.

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 4.—Plans for the organization of a corporation to be known as the Atlantic and Gulf Export company for the purpose of financing foreign trade were discussed here today at a conference of naval stores men from various parts of the south. Re-establishment of foreign trade in naval stores with countries which prior to the war were large consumers but which are now prevented from purchasing heavily through inability to make the necessary financial arrangements, is the purpose of the proposed organization. The plan contemplates the sending of representatives to Germany, Austria, Belgium, Italy and South America and such other countries as require credit. A plan for extending this credit may be mapped out.

More than half the normal naval stores output of the United States has in the past been consumed by foreign countries. Prior to 1914 British and German dealers handled the larger portion of the American naval stores exports, reselling to other countries, including South America. This was possible naval stores men claim, through the financial organizations of those two countries. Because of the disarmament of international trade, these facilities for foreign distribution are not now available in the same degree as formerly.

FLORIDA INAUGURATES NEW CHIEF EXECUTIVE

Gov. Hardee Urges Strict Enforcement in Inaugural Address.

Tallahassee, Fla., January 4.—Cary A. Hardee, of Live Oak, banker and attorney, was inaugurated governor of Florida today to succeed the Rev. Sidney J. Catts. Governor Hardee took the oath of office administered by Chief Justice J. B. Brown of the state supreme court on the east portico of the capitol, and the ceremony was followed immediately by the inaugural address, in which the new governor urged law enforcement, the conservation of the state's resources and the building of new highways and discussed various matters pertaining to the development of Florida.

The inaugural ceremony was preceded by a parade through the city streets, and the ceremony was followed by the retiring governor and the new governor, cabinet officers and state officials, and participated in by members of the American Legion, confederate veterans, civic organizations and county delegations from all parts of the state.

Today also marked one other change in the political of Florida. Van C. Swearingen was succeeded as attorney general by R. H. Balford, who was elected governor four years ago.

THIRTY-DAY LIMIT ALLOWED PACKERS

Washington, January 4.—All proposals thus far advanced by the "big five" meat packers for divesting themselves of their stockyard interests were rejected today by Justice Stafford, in the district supreme court. The companies were given thirty days in which to submit new plans.

At the same time the court warned that unless the defendant proposed plans that would meet requirements outlined, it would be obliged to appoint officers to take title to all the stock (of the stockyards) in question and to hold the same subject to the order of the court until suitable agreements can be made.

Ingen was defeated in the race for the governorship by Mr. Hardee. The other cabinet officers were elected and as follows: H. Clay Crawford, secretary of state; Ernest Amos, comptroller; J. C. Luning, treasurer; W. S. Shattuck, superintendent of public instruction.

The Rev. Mr. Catts is expected to take up his residence at Defunak Springs, where he held a Baptist pastorate when he was elected governor four years ago.

be made to have it disposed of in accordance with the terms and purposes of the decree, agreed upon between the packers and the government more than a year ago.

Slant Interpretation.

In a formal statement regarding the court's decision, the department of justice interpreted this as meaning "that if the packers did not divest themselves from the stockyards, the court would do it for them."

Justice Stafford said that "to facilitate future progress it is considered best to state here that the court cannot see its way to approve any plan for the consolidation of the yards whether by a holding company or otherwise. Such a plan had been submitted by Swift and Armour, which companies had proposed that the holding company be organized by F. H. Prince & Co., Boston bankers. The government opposed this plan."

Plans Must Satisfy.

"Any plans to be acceptable," continued Justice Stafford's opinion, must provide for an early and complete divestment by the defendants of all the obnoxious holdings. "If any delay is to be allowed in the actual divestment under the plans that may be proposed, such plans must provide for complete control by the court in the meantime of all such stocks and must leave the matter in the hand of the court in such wise that the plan itself may be terminated at any time if the court shall determine that the defendants are not proceeding thereunder with promptness and vigor."

Because of the "peculiar circumstances" at the Crescent City, Ill., stockyard the court allowed six months for the filing of a plan for disposing of those yards.

FRANCE REQUESTS PREMIERS MEETING

Note Sent to Rome, London and Brussels—Proposed Meeting Presumed to Discuss German Disarmament.

Paris, January 4.—The French government sent telegraphic messages yesterday to London, Rome and Brussels proposing a meeting as soon as possible of the heads of these allied governments. It was learned today. The date suggested by France was from Friday, January 7, to Wednesday, January 12.

The proposed meeting presumably would be for discussion of the question of German disarmament, which has been the subject of recent exchanges between the French and German governments. The latest German note, in which it was declared Germany had done her best to live up to the terms of the Versailles treaty and the Spa agreement regarding disarmament, but had found it impossible to carry them out to the letter, was received by the French foreign office Monday.

With Prices at Rock Bottom, This Store Drives Full Speed Ahead For 1921

DURING the Inventories just completed, this store revised prices downward to today's market value, on every complete line of merchandise in the store. On a number of incomplete lines and Clearance Lots, prices are probably less than their replacement value.

BECAUSE of the Mark-downs taken on stocks on hand, we firmly believe that the Atlanta public can buy for decidedly less today than they will have to pay later for the same goods.

IN fact, some merchandise prices in the wholesale markets have an upward rather than a downward tendency, and we believe absolutely that the "Bottom" has been reached in prices.

CAREFUL Shoppers may glean the best values they have known in years, throughout every department of this big store. —They will, in many cases, find standard, first quality merchandise at prices Lower than they have been since before the war.

FOR Instance,——"The January Sale of Silks" embodies thousands of yards of the choicest of staple silks, at prices which are as low and Lower than since before the war.

—"The Greatest Sale of Muslin Underwear since 1914"—embraces values impossible to duplicate in Atlanta today. —Values which may not be duplicated again this season, even at High's.

AND so it goes, right through every department of the store. Our prices are Down, and we believe we can assure the Atlanta public that these prices are at the Lowest Level they will attain.

AND our policy of Underselling is absolute. WE WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD! It will pay you to watch our advertisements, and to shop here regularly. To do so will be a means of tremendous Money-savings to you.

BOLSHEVIST MOVE INTERESTS FRANCE

Attack on Rumania by Russian Armies Foreseen in Massing of Six Divisions on Dneister River.

Paris, January 4.—The French government is concerned over unofficial dispatches telling of the concentration of six new divisions of the Russian bolshevik army on the frontier of Bessarabia and all along the Dneister river. The reports indicate that Moscow is preparing an attack for the purpose of trying to regain the province of Bessarabia.

The Associated Press is informed that the Rumanian legation in Paris that the bolshevik menace, while always at the door of Rumania, is no more acute today than for several months past. The legation had no confirmation of the dispatches announcing that all Rumanian railway men had been mobilized and that the king was reported to have signed a decree calling several classes to the colors.

A dispatch received today from the Rumanian foreign minister, M. Jonescu, said that all was quiet in Rumania and made no mention of military preparations or the reported bolshevik menace.

It was explained at the legation that Rumania was neither at peace nor at war with Russia. In a recent exchange of notes between Rumania and Moscow, the bolsheviks denied they intended to move against Rumania, but the possibility that the bolsheviks are making an attempt to take back Bessarabia is not denied by the Rumanians.

French official circles would not be surprised at a bolshevik attack against Rumania, and it is pointed out that such a move would have a two-fold purpose—one, to retake Bessarabia, and the other, to hasten a trade agreement with England by a display of military force.

Arson Attempt On Tenth Street Puzzles Police

Atlanta police were puzzled last night over a most unusual case of attempted arson. Officers were now busy trying to find the parties. When W. E. Keel, of 149 East Tenth street, returned to his home with his family, after having spent several hours away, he found that some one had tried to burn up his residence in the meantime.

Piled against the side of his house was a stack of wood. There was plenty of evidence that it had been set afire, but for some reason the flames had not burst out before the home was damaged.

Wife of Leader Of Bank Bandits Asks for Pardon

Columbus, Ga., January 4.—(Special.)—With the declaration that she desires to return to her home in Little Rock, Ark., begin her life anew and rear her 8-year-old son, Harry Denton, to be a good citizen, Mrs. Irene Dickerson, wife of Roy Dickerson, leader of the gang which robbed the Phenix-Girard bank less than a year ago, has filed a petition for parole with the Alabama pardon board.

In the petition the claim is made that Mrs. Dickerson entered into the plot to rob the Russell county bank against her consent and that she endeavored to induce her husband not to take part in the robbery. She claims that she was the victim of a circumstance over which she had no control and her intention to atone for her wrongdoing was shown in the return of the stolen money and securities she had in her possession.

A petition signed by 600 citizens of Russell county attesting to the good character of Mrs. Dickerson, while she was Mrs. Denton, before she married Roy Dickerson, lived in Arkansas, will be presented to the board when the hearing on the petition is held. The case will be considered this month.

Accompanying the petition is a letter from Governor Charles Brough, of Arkansas, to Governor Thomas E. Kilby, asking the Alabama executive to give the petition careful consideration and telling him that he personally knew Mrs. Dickerson to be of good character while she lived in Arkansas. The letter from the Arkansas governor followed an appeal for clemency from J. T. Burkett, secretary of the Arkansas penitentiary commission.

MOBILE TRACTOR CO. LICENSE IS REVOKED

Securities Commission Acts on Charges Made by Judge H. A. Hixson.

Alleging that the Mobile Tractor company of Alabama, has been proven guilty, in the opinion of the Georgia securities commission, of fraudulent transactions as the result of charges brought by Judge H. A. Hixson, prominent American attorney, Chief Investigator Thomas Conner, announced Tuesday night that the license of the concern to sell stock in Georgia had been revoked.

This action was taken by the commission under the new securities law following Judge Hixson's charges that he had loaned $15,000 to the company, and that he had been paid $15,000 for the loan. Judge Hixson said, the officials took a new contract back to Alabama with perfect comprehension of the terms. "There, Mr. Kimball, state were to deliver stock."

"There can be no question but that it was specifically agreed that the private stock of Ryan and Herbert was to be delivered to me," said Judge Hixson in a letter to Mr. Conner. "When they brought the contract back to me, it was executed by the Mobile Tractor company instead of Frank J. Ryan and A. L. Herbert individually."

"I refused to accept it for the reason that it was executed by the company," he continued, "and not by Ryan and Herbert as agreed upon." After insisting the change be made, Judge Hixson said, the officials took a new contract back to Alabama with perfect comprehension of the terms. "There, Mr. Kimball, state were to deliver stock."

agent, when the matter was closed up, made the transfer on the bonds of the Mobile Tractor company instead of Ryan and Herbert. He knew how it should have been done, has since admitted he knew it and I think he has done all in his power to correct the error.

The American attorney stated he insisted that the bonds be returned and that Ryan and Herbert promised to do so. "Imagine my surprise when I received a letter acknowledging the receipt of my application for 200 shares of stock for which I had paid in full with Liberty bonds."

Immediately I wrote the company, stating I had made no application for stock and demanding that the bonds be returned.

On October 13 of last year, however, he received a letter from a Macon bank, he said, advising that

Dr. A. B. Hinkle, well-known physician of that city, was requesting that $10,000 in Liberty bonds registered in Hixson's name be exchanged for coupon bonds.

It is charged that these bonds were placed as security with Dr. Hinkle by Ryan and Herbert on the former's agreement to underwrite a certain amount of stock of the company to be sold in Georgia, said Mr. Conner. Judge Hixson filed a caveat with the treasury department immediately to prevent the bonds being changed as requested by Dr. Hinkle, it was stated.

Judge Hixson has not yet secured his Liberty bonds, it is said. Ryan and Herbert, it was stated, are no longer connected with the Mobile Tractor company. The commission did not serve the company with notice that its license had been revoked.

All Knitted Underwear for Women and Children Is Now at the Lowest Price Level

THE people of Atlanta and this section of the South have about one more month to realize on the LOW PRICES WHICH PREVAIL TODAY. The reason for this is very clear. Today manufacturers and merchants alike are CLEARING THEIR STOCK of merchandise accumulated during the past year. THEY ARE WILLING TO TAKE THE VERY LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICE FOR THIS MERCHANDISE. Even though the price represents a loss. When such merchandise is cleared, however, and the merchant goes to the manufacturer for more merchandise with which to begin his 1921 business, both the manufacturer and the merchant will be compelled to pay for merchandise the amount it costs to produce it, because these interests could not remain in business and sell merchandise for less than it is worth. WE WANT TO SEE EVERY CUSTOMER OF THE CHAMBERLIN-JOHNSON-DUBOSE COMPANY get the advantage of the prices prevailing today, therefore, we say DO NOT DELAY YOUR PURCHASING TOO LONG. BUY THIS MONTH OF ALL MONTHS. These prices represent substantial reductions from former prices and are in line with the present market, in some cases anticipating the lowest price level which manufacturers have not as yet reached.

MORE FIRMS FAIL SAYS DUN REPORT

Commercial Failures for 1920 Show Numerical Gain of 37.7 Per Cent, While Indebtedness Is 160.5 Per Cent Greater.

New York, January 4.—Commercial failures throughout the United States during 1920, as made public today by R. G. Dun & Co. numbered 8,851, with indebtedness of $295,121,805. In 1919 the company's records showed 6,451 failures, involving liabilities of $113,291,237, making an increase of failures last year of 2,400. The comparative increase of commercial insolvencies, the report said, is relatively much smaller than the expansion of $181,800,000 in liabilities, showing the rise in the number of failures to have been 37.7 per cent and of indebtedness 160.5 per cent.

Training Received at The Southern Business University Opened The Door to Eminent Success to The Five Sons of Mrs. Imogen Tupper

This Prominent Atlanta Family, Though Highly Educated, Believes That a Business Training Is of Paramount Importance.

BY WESLEY ROLAND.

It is truly interesting to visit the Southern Shortland and Business University, while the enrollment of pupils for the winter term is going on this week and next.

Located at No. 11 Whitehall street, this school begins 1921 under the most favorable conditions and encouraging outlook for the future. I have met many prominent people whose good fortune it has been to have received the extensive and practical training given by the Southern Business University.

Mrs. Imogen H. Tupper, whom most everybody knows, is a woman of fine education, keen perception and possessing many other rare accomplishments. She is the widow of the late Dr. T. C. Tupper, who was formerly the rector of St. Philip's Episcopal church of Atlanta.

Mrs. Tupper fully realized the importance to young people of this day and time of special preparation in order to achieve the greatest possible success in any walk of life. Her five sons inherited largely their mother's proclivities, and as they developed into young manhood, their ambition to reach the highest pinnacle of business success proved a dominant force in bringing about their laudable aspirations.

Mrs. Tupper's letter to the managers of the Southern, which is presented below, should be an inspiration to any young man or young woman who desires to attain success in life.

"West End, Atlanta, Ga.,
December 13, 1920.
Southern Shortland and Business University, Atlanta, Ga.
Messieurs:

"It is an ungenerous silence which leaves all the words of honestly earned praise to the obituary writer and the tombstone carver," wrote Oliver Wendell Holmes. If this be true of the individual, how culpable, then, the silence of withholding the award of merit due an institution whose beneficence is so wide-reaching; whose training has developed the potential forces of youth, inciting to self-reliance, securing steady incomes, realizing independence.

"Near and far the alumni of the Southern Shortland and Business University rank with the ablest men in finance and other branches of the policy of which it is our privilege to be members.

"May we be forgiven for the personal element of our testimony? Our oldest son won recognition in banking circles. His work on finance was published in book form by the bank in which he was an officer. Two eastern institutions requested permission to use it as a textbook. He is vice president of a bank in St. Louis, Missouri. Another son chose a career in journalism. A younger son is in railroad circles, two others have made a success in the business world. All had their business education under the tuition of those past-masters in the pedagogy of mechanical expression, instructors Messieurs A. C. Briscoe and L. W. Arnold.

"Our individual obligation to them consequently is Himalayan in height. Gratefully,
"MRS. IMOGEN HAYWOOD TUPPER."

The business college has become one of the most important institutions. Every young man and young woman who desires to succeed in the business world these days must first be trained in a good business school, and I do not know of any other in this state that ranks so high among merchants, bankers, lawyers, doctors and all other classes of business men as does the Southern Shortland and Business University.

Since I began reporting several years ago I have watched with interest the rapid advancement of business education. It has taken a prominent place in the business world, and is now the most indispensable cog in the wheel of commerce.

Hundreds of young people, both sexes, every year pass through the courses of the Southern Business College and are sent out into positions of responsibility.

"A tree is known by its fruit," a business school by the success of its graduates. The Southern's pupils succeed immeasurably, and perhaps this is the secret of the wonderful growth of this well-known institution.—(adv.)

Geographical Analysis.
"The class designated as 'other commercial,' which embraces defaults that can not be properly included in either manufacturing or trading, shows 714 reverses for $18,870,987, or a numerical increase of 24.6 per cent and an expansion of 27.2 per cent in the indebtedness over the 572 such failures for $24,006,578 in 1919. It thus appears that relatively the most unsatisfactory numerical exhibit is made by the manufacturing division.

"Geographical analysis of the past year's statistics of failures shows a country-wide trend toward the business mortality. The year's insolvencies are 3.2 per cent larger than those of 1919 in New England, 62.5 per cent heavier in the middle Atlantic states, 45.4 per cent greater in the south Atlantic section, 44.8 per cent more numerous in the failures in the eight sections of the country were reported as follows:

New England—553 commercial defaults, involving $20,324,092 of liabilities, against 812 insolvencies for $12,127 in the immediately preceding year.

Middle Atlantic—2,644 failures, involving $40,365,599 in 1919, compared with 1,627 defaults for $40,365,599 in 1919.

South Atlantic—1,038 failures involving $20,765,115 as against 717 insolvencies for $20,000,555 in 1919.

Central—370 commercial failures for $48,771,311 of liabilities, compared with 1,161 insolvencies for $23,853,597 in 1919.

Central West—713 business reverses for $18,552,390 contrasted with 471 defaults for $5,615,022 in 1919.

Western States—315 failures with an indebtedness of $5,784,407, compared with 271 insolvencies for $2,416,341 in 1919.

Pacific States—997 commercial failures for the year 1920 with an aggregate indebtedness of $22,309,818, contrasting with 769 defaults in 1919 for $11,070,007.

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE DENIED DETECTIVES

any set of men, I'll sit here until hell freezes over before I'll see a hair of their heads harmed."

His fight was based on a desire that the board take no hasty action that would indicate prejudgment of the case against the officers or a spirit of antagonism on the part of the city to the grand jury and the solicitor general.

VINDICATION EXPECTED.

When the grand jury presentations were first brought before the board, it seemed extremely likely there would be a quick and complete vindication of the detective officers. In bringing the question before the board, Acting Chairman Chambers declared that he wished first to have read the findings of the councilmanic investigating committee on the same subject. These findings, it will be remembered, were entirely in favor of the detective department.

Mayor Key objected to this procedure. "Those findings might vary well be considered as part of this proceeding, but they certainly should not be allowed to precede the whole," he declared. "The grand jury has made certain serious charges against certain police officers. We are meeting here to try these charges. As far as I am concerned I am going to deal with this question as a matter of public policy and the public policy that I want to pursue is not to try this case in advance or be prejudiced in anybody's favor. I want a fair, square and open trial. I simply want a show down."

Replying to the mayor, Commissioner Chambers said that he did not believe that the board should go on record as being unwilling at any future time to reopen the whole affair, "but," said he, "I've read a lot and heard a lot of the things dealt with in these grand jury presentations."

"MIGHTY LITTLE GROUND."

"I am against everyone of the hearings before the councilmanic investigation and I'm pretty sure that about all the evidence the solicitor-general has against these officers was presented at those hearings. And if that's all the evidence the grand jury had, I'll say that they had mighty little ground on which to take the action they did."

"Here they come with recommendations that we discharge officers, who as far as I'm concerned, I'll say right now are as honest as efficient as ever served on a police force anywhere."

"These officers are in charge of one of the city's most important departments. You know and I know that as long as these charges are hovering over them, not one of these men can devote the same energy and intelligence to his duties as he did before. The solicitor-general says that he will not present any evidence to us, until after he has presented it in court. I don't know how long that will be and I doubt if he does. I think all that time that these detectives should not be hampered. I tell you that unless we take some action and take it immediately this department will be ruined."

In replying Mayor Key admitted that he found it difficult to reconcile the position of the solicitor-general. "I don't see how he can figure that running down a sure-things gambler is more important to public welfare than this trial," said the mayor. "If these policemen have been protesting criminals I will say that they are the worst criminals in Atlanta and that it is of paramount importance to the public good and the public safety for the solicitor-general to tell us everything he knows against them."

FIRST DUTY RIGHT HERE.

"He should not be influenced for a second by the fact that he receives fees for prosecuting gamblers in the courthouse and would not receive a cent for showing up these detectives the grand jury accuses down here. According to my opinion, the solicitor-general is right. How can he reconcile his attitude with his sense of justice to the public? I don't know. If there is evidence against these officers and they are permitted to continue serving the people of Atlanta, the solicitor-general must shoulder the blame."

"But we can't get around this fact. The grand jury has made these presentations against these members of the police department. The solicitor-general says he has evidence to back them up. Now I move that we respectfully call on the solicitor-general to present this evidence against these officers at any time consistent with the public welfare that he sees fit and when he does see fit to present the evidence I want the information to go out to the world that the trial is open to everyone and is fair and above board."

THREE MONTHS SUGGESTED.

"Suppose he would fix three months as a reasonable time in which to present his evidence?"

TREASURER OF U. S. RESIGNS POSITION

Ex-Governor Burke, of North Dakota, Announces His Resignation, Effective When Successor Is Named.

Washington, January 4.—John Burke, treasurer of the United States, today announced his resignation effective upon the appointment of his successor.

Mr. Burke was appointed treasurer in March, 1913. Prior to that time he served three terms as governor of North Dakota and was a member of both the senate and house of that state. He will join the banking firm of Kardos & Co. of New York, which is to become Kardos & Burke.

Merchant Watches All Night for Thief; Is Robbed at Dawn

Anniston, Ala., January 4.—(Special.)—Manager S. C. Sprouse, of a local store, is trying to figure out how it was that after he had waited all night in the store to catch a burglar, the thief managed to rob the store as soon as the watchful manager left it to get his breakfast. When Mr. Sprouse returned he found the job had been done with neatness and dispatch, and a considerable quantity of goods missing.

asked Commissioner Chambers, "would you consider that anything like a reasonable time?"

"I don't think we should pre-suppose anything. The perfect solicitor general might do. He has said that it is imperative to the common good that he not disclose his evidence at this time. This may be due to the fact that he has further revelations to make. I think that the future can very well determine the time limit."

Mr. Chambers then introduced this substitute to the mayor's motion: "With the information it has before it, we recommend that this board express its entire confidence in the integrity, faithfulness and efficiency of the chief and lieutenant of detectives, and its belief that they have been true to every trust and not neglectful of any duty."

"We further recommend that the solicitor-general be advised by courteous letter that if he has any evidence which he can furnish to the board in open session, it will gladly hear it and then take such action as is required by its production, and we are perfectly willing to let the public judge of whether or not the action taken is adequate to meet the requirements of the situation then disclosed."

CHAMBERS' POSITION.

Speaking to his substitute, Commissioner Chambers said, "As I understand it, the function of the grand jury to return indictments against anyone there is just cause to believe is guilty. If the grand jury had any evidence of conviction on the part of these officers with these crooks the presentments tell about why didn't the grand jury return indictments? I say that when the grand jury goes beyond the proper function of returning indictments and recommends the discharge of these officers without one scintilla of evidence to back up their recommendations, they have worked the gravest sort of an injustice."

"If the solicitor-general has all this evidence in his home behind the chief of police or before this board and I'll guarantee he'll get action. But as I said before, I attended every one of the hearings of the councilmanic investigators. The solicitor-general refused to come before that body, but I know of my personal knowledge that he gave the grand jury the best of his evidence. Let's not call their action damnable. Let's not impugn the solicitor's motives. Let's just have a show down."

MAYOR'S REPLY.

Mayor Key, in his reply, declared that if the enemies of the police department or the enemies of Atlanta wanted to fashion anything that could go farther toward destroying the usefulness of both, they couldn't have hit on a better plan than Mr. Chambers'.

"If we adopted any such substitute following the grand jury presentations, the papers would have something to howl about," he said. "The grand jury is not going to be tried by me," continued the mayor. "I know that many of the grand jurors are being withheld by the solicitor until he gives his evidence before the new grand jury. It is understood that he lost a large amount of money."

Stating developments, it was indicated Tuesday by Solicitor Boykin that the climax of the investigations of his department into the gambling ring in Atlanta has not yet been reached, and that within the next few days more startling developments may be expected. Solicitor Boykin intends to go ahead with his own probe, and has already announced that he will not turn over any of the evidence in his possession to the police board for use in its proposed probe of the charges against the heads of the detective department.

Detective Leaders.

The three officers at the head of the detective department whom the jury recommended be removed are Lamar Poole, chief of detectives, and Lieutenants T. D. Shaw and R. L. Waggoner. Poole was elected to the force in 1899 and in 1906 was promoted to roundsman, later being made a captain. In 1915 he was elevated to the rank of chief, succeeding the late George C. Bullard.

Lieutenant Theodore D. Shaw was elected to the police force in 1904 and was made sergeant of detectives in 1915, receiving his promotion to a lieutenancy in September, 1919. Lieutenant Robert L. Waggoner became connected with the police department in 1904 as a sergeant, a patrolman for six years, then being transferred to the detective department. In 1914 he was made sergeant of detectives and in September, 1919, was promoted to a lieutenancy.

YOUR INVISIBLE GUEST

TIMES ARE DULL COTTON IS DOWN AND YOU ARE TIRED OF BEING BEGGED

Sure—

So are we.

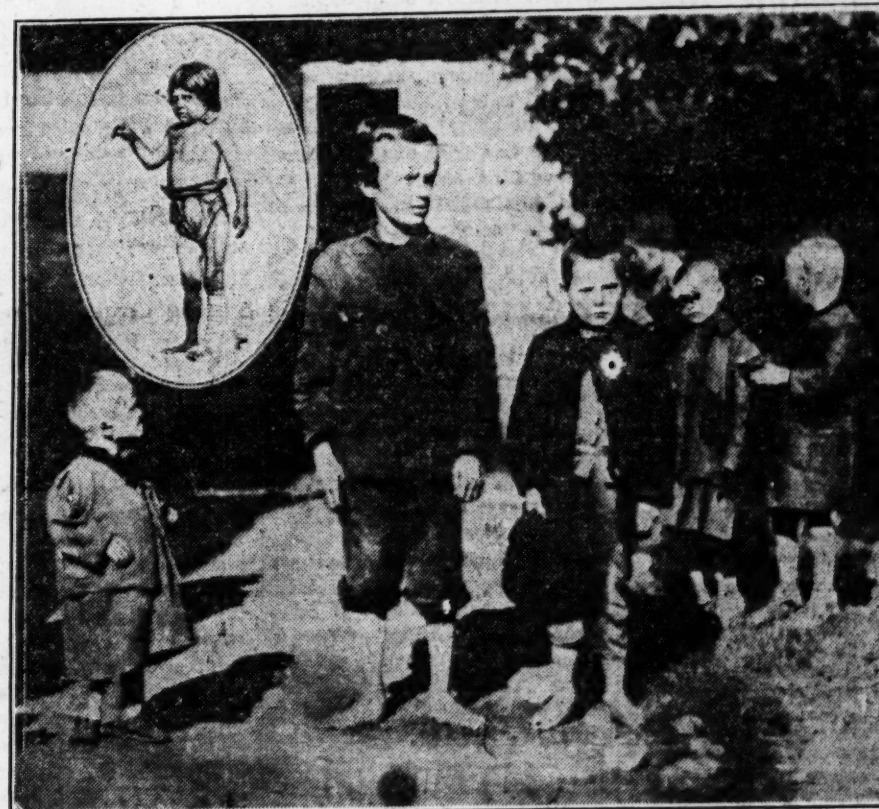

But—

Did you ever look into the eyes of the mother of a dying child when that mother was praying God and man to do something to save her baby?

If you have, you will do your share in helping to answer the prayers of the mothers of Europe to save their children.

Only those actually starving are being fed, and these are being given just one meal a day, enough to keep body and soul together until harvest.

Consider them—

Shall we send them away to die, because, after the greatest prosperity a country has ever known, times are a little dull?

Would you let a child starve to death at your door?

Neither will you stand idle when they are dying for food in Europe.

Every home in Atlanta should have an invisible guest this winter—one of these children.

A ten dollar bill makes one your guest and saves a life.

How many will you take?

BONDS OR SPECIAL TAX.

The new council has no more important question before it than that of deciding upon the method to be employed in providing funds for permanent physical improvements in Atlanta's school system

—improvements, the urgent need for which is universally conceded.

The mayor forcefully and truthfully calls attention to the fact that—

"The point has been reached where something must be done in building up the public school system and in meeting the demands upon the school for the education of the children and the youth of our community."

Every right-thinking and observant citizen of Atlanta will coincide with this statement, the significance of which is only emphasized

by the further fact, as the mayor expresses it—that

"no enlargement of the plant has been made within two years and for a long time previous to that the plant has not grown with the increased demands upon it. During the last two years the records show that $25,000,000 have been spent in erecting new buildings in Atlanta and yet not 25 cents have been put into new school buildings."

"Two years ago," the message goes on to say—

"the school plant was not sufficient to adequately and comfortably take care of the schools. Since that time the school population has increased approximately twenty-five hundred with no additional space to take care of it except in basements, old houses, rooms over stores and places of such character."

Then, an impressive recital of conditions that exist in our school system as a result of the starvation policy that has obtained in the past, the mayor says in his message—

"If any citizen will go and look this school situation over it will bring a blush of shame to his cheeks and he will know that this city is not doing justice to its children and to the future. I shall not mention these in detail and I shall make reference only to one. The Tech High school has been in operation for ten or twelve years. It has approximately fifteen hundred students. It has a marvelous spirit, not only among the student body,

but among the teachers as well.

Its main building was built for a garage, and not a very good one at that. It has rented all manner of outhouses, basement rooms, old residences, stores, and, under these conditions, they are carrying on school. Even with such accommodations as they have they cannot accommodate the whole school at one time. When the school is in operation, in shifting about, there is always one hundred and eighty students out in the open without even a shed to stand under. The buildings are poorly lighted, poorly ventilated, poorly heated, insanitary and dangerous from fire. This school is a crime against the youth of this city; but the school has kept its spirit notwithstanding all of these limitations. It is a marvelous spirit, worth more to Atlanta than it would cost to build all of the buildings that are needed for the public schools."

The mayor is exactly right.

These conditions are enough to "bring a blush of shame" to the face of any human-hearted, self-respecting citizen.

The mayor points out the need of $1,000,000 immediately for "new school equipment" (buildings), work on which, he says, should begin "as soon as men and materials can be put to work."

Every public-spirited and progressive citizen will readily agree to this.

But the mayor recommends that the million dollars be acquired by the direct taxation method—by levying an emergency tax of one-half of one per cent for school purposes, the levy to be made upon the basis of the new tax assessment valuation.

Then he discusses the other alternative—the bonding method—and he declares that "not less than five million dollars" would be required "to meet the demands of the public schools for the present and for a period of, say, ten years."

Time and time repeatedly, and for years, The Constitution has urged the necessity of a bond issue of "not less than five million dollars" as a starter toward meeting "the demands of the public schools for the present" and for the future!

As to the relative merits in the suggestion of recruiting five as against one million, the mayor argues, in effect, that it would be impossible to get the larger amount by direct taxation, while the smaller amount could be thus obtained this year; and, while he is opposed to the bonding method per se, he admits that by that means only could the larger amount possibly be acquired, and at the same time he admits that

"not less than five million dollars are needed."

Then, we say, the fact that five millions could not be obtained by direct emergency taxation, while it might be obtained by the bonding method, instead of being detrimental to the position of bond advocates, argues eloquently in its favor!

The mayor argues that "with the past experience we have had in an effort to issue bonds it seems almost a hopeless task," for, he declares—

"It requires about as large a percent of voters to vote up a bond issue as ever come to the polls to vote during our most heated election, and in bond elections, even where there is no opposition, the difficulty of securing a sufficient vote is almost impossible to overcome and where there are any considerable elements of opposition a bond issue is impossible."

That argument, under existing conditions, amounts to little.

At the time of Atlanta's last attempt to carry a bond election the law was such that dead men, men who no longer lived in Atlanta, and registered voters who purposely or through lack of interest remained away from the polls counted in the results as having disapproved the proposal at issue the same as though they had cast ballots against it.

The mayor overlooks the fact that the law has been changed since then—changed for the very purpose of meeting just such a situation as now exists in Atlanta —and that no election has been held in Atlanta under the new law; also that since the new law went into effect bond elections have been held in several other

Georgia municipalities which had previously been unable to vote

bonds, just as Atlanta had, and not one of them has failed to carry!

It was at Atlanta's suggestion, made soon after our last unsuccessful bond election, that the legislature amended the law so as to make it a comparatively simple matter for a municipality in Atlanta's position to vote bonds.

At our last bond election the proposal to issue $3,000,000 bonds for improvement purposes failed

by a margin so small that had the present law been in effect at that time the proposal would have carried overwhelmingly!

It was following that election that Atlanta instigated the legislation that changed the law; and yet, after getting the law changed

so that we might issue bonds,

Atlanta has failed, and thus far refused, even to give the new law

a trial!

As to the $5,000,000 bond suggestion, the mayor says:

"An effort to finance a bond issue at this time would find the worst possible bond market and the rates you would obtain now would be to be borne for thirty years.

In addition to the interest charged under the constitution of the state of Georgia, a sinking fund must be provided each year to retire the bonds at maturity. I estimate that it would require not less than 9 per cent to cover interest and sinking fund charges. This, on an issue of five million dollars of bonds, would require four hundred and fifty thousand dollars which must be met out of the current annual revenues of the city."

Let us be exact as to the proposition that $450,000 per year would be required to carry a bond issue of $5,000,000.

To get $1,000,000—the amount to be yielded by the proposed emergency tax levy—by the bonding method would cost $83,333 at maximum interest of 5 per cent,

this including one-thirtieth of payment of principal; for $5,000,000 in bonds the cost would be $416,

$665 per year. That would represent the payment of five-thirti-eths, or one-sixth, of the whole principal, or $833,000.

The mayor takes the position that it would be unduly burdensome, if not impossible, to raise $416,665 each year beyond the current revenues of the city—the amount necessary to provide for sinking fund maintenance in accordance with the law, and to de-fract the interest on a bonded indebtedness of $5,000,000.

If that is true, where is the sense or the justice in burdening

the taxpayers of the city with extra taxation of $1,000,000 in a single year, when, at a cost of only

$416,665, the city could get $5,000,

000, to be paid throughout a long period of years and in part by the future generations which stand to enjoy the benefits of the improvements on which the money is to be expended?

The proposal to levy this tax,

by which a cold million dollars would be taken from the taxpayers in a single year—in addition to their regular tax burdens—on a basis of the increased assessment would be unjust and unsound.

When last year's assessments were made property was more or less inflated, values were at high tide, and everything in the way of realty was, as everybody well knows, "sky-high."

Now, due to the post-war readjustment process, now at its height, values generally are at low ebb—

much lower than they were a year ago; so that a rate of one-half of one per cent on the present valuations would actually be much higher than one-half of one per cent on assessments as they stood a year ago.

Surely, council will see the truth in this; and surely, backed by public sentiment, they will see the wisdom and justice of at least giving the bonding method a trial

under the new conditions that were established directly at Atlanta's moderate Atlanta's situation, before saddling the taxpayers of this city with enormous additional taxation which, just at this time, would be burdensome indeed!

The bonding plan is worth trying out. Most other progressive cities operate on this

CONGRESS REFUSES TO FINANCE DAM

By Narrow Margin House Votes as Committee of Whole Against Muscle Shoals Project.

Washington, January 4.—The assistance of such powerful republican leaders as Representative Mann, of Illinois, former floor leader of his party, failed in the house today to rally enough votes for the democrats to put across the $10,000,000 appropriation wanted for the continuation of the work on the Wilson dam at Muscle Shoals in Alabama.

The amendment was lost by just seven votes, but another attempt will be made to get funds when the sundry civil bill is taken up by the house itself. The vote today was in committee of the whole.

Under the leadership of Representatives Byrnes and Garrett, of Tennessee, the democrats made a vigorous fight for the project. They were joined by several republicans, among them being Newton, of Missouri; Hull, Iowa; Smith, Michigan; Curry and Barbour, both of California; Haugen, Iowa; Graham, Pennsylvania; Mann, Illinois; Simpson, Oregon, and Sells, Tennessee. But the final vote showed 125 for the amendment and 132 against.

Mann Is Cheered.

Representative Mann brought cheers from the democratic side when he declared the fertility of the soil was of supreme importance to an agricultural country. Everything possible should be done to aid the producers and consumers in getting fertilizer as cheaply as possible, he asserted.

"Shall we scarp a plant because we don't like its cost or throw it away because we don't like the men who are responsible for building it?" Mr. Mann asked. There were never enough Chilean nitrates, he said, and everything possible should be done to increase the supply of fertilizer for the farmers.

Cause of Defeat.

The expenditures, he said, was the greatest single item of the recent campaign and largely responsible for the democratic defeat. There is money enough to carry on the work at Muscle Shoals until June, he added, and there would be plenty of time for the new congress to inquire into the matter carefully before making any further appropriation. From the standpoint of all defense, he said, the project stands completed and he did not think the farmers were "very much given to paternalistic enterprises."

In closing the debate on the democratic side, Representative Garrett, Tennessee, said it was no new enterprise on which the government is being asked to embark. The question was whether the investment already made should be "deliberately" thrown away, he said, or completed for the benefit of the military aspect, he said the United States must never again be at the mercy of foreign countries for its supply of explosives.

"It would be the height of folly to stop this great work," he asserted.

Scores Expense.

Representative Wood, of Indiana, chairman of the appropriations subcommittee, said the Wilson dam project was a proposition to throw away $10,000,000 and "every man who votes for it will be ought to receive the same condemnation the president received for his extravagance."

Debate on the sundry civil bill, to which the Wilson dam appropriation would have been an amendment, came to an abrupt halt tonight when a fight was started on a paragraph appropriating $10,250,000 for improvements along several rivers in the south. Representative Frear, republican, Wisconsin, tried to have the paragraph stricken out on the ground that it was new legislation.

Representative Bankhead, democrat, Alabama, declared that a long point of order that a quorum was not present. He withdrew his point, however, but Mr. Frear insisted on a call of the house. To avoid this the house adjourned.

Improvements Sought.

Improvements at stake in the contested paragraph, which will be taken up tomorrow, are: For terminal docks, South St. Louis, $400,000; cotton handling equipment, Memphis, $400,000; terminal docks, New Orleans, $400,000; storage bins for coal, Córdova, Ala., $400,000; cargo handling facilities, New Orleans, $250,000; mooring facilities, immigration station, Algeiras, La., $250,000; for operation of last, $300,000.

The senate also devoted considerable time today to Muscle Shoals, having under consideration a bill creating a government corporation to complete and carry on nitrate production at the Alabama plant. Senator Smith, democrat, South Carolina, and other members gave notice that the measure would be held constantly before the body until voted upon while Senator Wadsworth, republican, New York, proposed several amendments to the proposed corporation from the war to the treasury department.

LOWERING OF TAX RATES IS URGED

DeKalb Mass Meeting Calls for Adjustment of Values Be Made Upon Basis of Pre-War Conditions.

Decatur, Ga., January 4.—(Special.)—Calling upon state and county authorities of Georgia to lower all tax rates to an adjusted basis of pre-war prices, a large mass meeting of DeKalb county citizens, held in the courthouse at Decatur Tuesday, passed resolutions intended to bring relief to farmers and property owners in general during the present financial stringency.

The meeting, which was presided over by W. E. Wimby, first adopted a resolution offered by Paul F. White, of East Atlanta, which expressed the sense that "all future taxes should be founded primarily on earning power of the lands taxed, and not upon the inflated, speculative valuation which existed in 1920."

After taking this action, an amendment presented by C. H. Morris, was adopted, which called upon "state and county authorities to lower all taxes in order to bring retrenchment for our government during 1921," expressing the opinion that "pre-war conditions should be a basis for adjustment."

Commissioner of Roads and Revenue L. T. Y. Nash, of DeKalb county, who addressed the meeting, stated that he intends to reduce the present tax rate in this county by 40 cents on the thousand during the year. The rate now is $2.40 on the thousand, $1.40 of this amount being the county rate, with 50 cents per thousand added for schools and state taxes each.

The meeting which was well attended by representative citizens, discussed the project of assembling all of DeKalb's outstanding debts and retiring them by means of a $500,000 bond issue. No action along this line was taken, however.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU FOR BOYS IS OPENED

Boys between the ages of 14 and 21 in search of employment are invited to seek information at the newly opened employment bureau located at Tech High school. The new bureau has been opened by Osborne Williams, director of research and guidance in the Atlanta public schools, and is under the supervision of W. A. Sutton, principal of Tech High, and Mrs. Mamie W. Leonard.

BIG GAIN SHOWN IN TAX DIGESTS

Georgia Taxpayers in 96 Counties Return Property at 27 Per Cent Increase Over 1919.

Georgia taxpayers in the ninety-six counties required to show increased digests last year returned their property at an estimated 27 per cent increase in actual value, showing an average increase of 27 per cent over 1919, according to statistics completed and announced for the first time Tuesday night by State Tax Commissioner Henry J. Fullbright.

Taking 35 per cent of the real value of property as the basis of equalization, the commissioner said that in 1920 there were ninety-six counties that fell below this standard, and he accordingly requested that they show increases. The average return of taxpayers in 1919 was 26 per cent of the actual value.

Charged with the duty of equalizing tax values among the counties of the state, said Mr. Fullbright, "I sought first to obtain reliable information as to the real values in order that I might compare these figures with the returns of the several counties which were shown by their tax digests. This was absolutely necessary in order to determine which counties were not paying upon reasonable basis with the others."

On Counties Below Average.

"A conservative estimation of the actual value of property on the books last year, was $200,000,000. Comparing returned values with the estimated actual values it developed that several counties fell below the state average. This being true," he continued, "these counties were required to show proportionately increases in their 1920 digests."

Twenty-four counties demanded arbitration when the commissioner returned their digests, calling for increased values. Of these counties, five were settled without arbitration; in five others no increase was made by the arbitrators; in two counties the arbitrators withdrew their demands; one withdrew its demand, and in the remaining ten counties were rendered increasing the digests.

Swiney's administration, the tax equalization act was passed, and the following year the total value of all property on county digests was $223,021,014. The 1919 returns showed $982,800,863, a net gain in six years of $229,779,749. For last year, the net gain was $18,110,794, giving a percentage increase of 33 per cent for the six years. The 1920 increase over 1919 was 20 per cent.

In showing such an increase in taxable property on Georgia digests, the combined increases of the preceding five years were surpassed, and state treasury will be enriched when all collections are finished by approximately $1,000,000, bringing in an estimated total revenue of $6,000,000.

prefer to remain at his side while he is being detained."

"I don't wish to be considered discourteous to the press," the lord mayor said when seen in jail, "but I prefer to say nothing until I have had my status defined by the proper authorities."

SUCCEEDED MacSWINEY.

Daniel O'Callaghan, as deputy lord mayor of Cork, performed the duties of Lord Mayor MacSwiney while the latter was in prison in London. Shortly after MacSwiney succumbed to his hunger strike late in October, O'Callaghan was elected lord mayor to succeed him.

Recently the lord mayor sent a cablegram to the Irish Americans of the United States, urging them to organize a relief fund for Ireland. He also appealed to the American Red Cross to send a contingent to Cork to aid the sufferers from the Cork fires.

O'Callaghan presided at a special meeting of the city council on December 13, at which resolutions, giving the Cork officials' views with regard to the proposed truce between England and Ireland, were adopted. These resolutions concluded by saying:

"We proceed on our unaltered determination to seek or sanction no truce save such international agreement as may be arranged between the Dail Eireann and the English government."

CHAIRMAN DENIES SUMMONING MEN.

Washington, January 4.—Neither Peter J. MacSwiney, of New York, brother of the late lord mayor of Cork, nor Daniel O'Callaghan, the present lord mayor of Cork, who arrived at Newport News tonight from an Irish port as stowaways, have been requested to appear before the commission from the committee of one hundred investigating the Irish question. Dr. Frederic C. Howe, chairman of the commission, said tonight, Mr. Howe added that he either might be contemplating coming to this country was contained in a recent dispatch from England to the effect that an American consul had issued a passport for MacSwiney.

NAPIER WILL ASK COURT DECISION

Attorney General-Elect Will Enter Mandamus Proceedings to Compel McLendon to Certify Returns.

After appearing before Governor Hugh M. Dorsey Tuesday afternoon to formally ask that he be sworn in as attorney general of Georgia and after his request had been refused, Attorney General-Elect George M. Napier announced Tuesday night he would enter mandamus proceedings against Secretary of State S. Guy McLendon to compel him to certify the returns of the race in the recent general election to the chief executive.

It was planned by the governor, Attorney General R. A. Denny and Mr. Napier to hold a conference on the question of the latter's right to the attorney general's office effective January 1, Tuesday morning, but when the principals and their representatives met in the afternoon after a postponement, it was learned that Secretary of State McLendon had declined to issue the certificate to the governor.

With the situation so involved, it was agreed by all that it would be unnecessary to argue the case. Mr. Napier then entered his request to be sworn in and the governor declined, stating that he had not authority to take such action since he had not received certification of the petitioner's election. The attorney general-elect stated to the conference that he would be forced to enter proceedings against Mr. McLendon.

"The question must be settled now," said Mr. Napier last night. "I am entering my mandamus proceedings in a friendly spirit and am interested in the case realize this, for the question is one which will cause complications at a later date unless decided by the courts."

Mr. Napier bases his contention to be sworn in immediately upon the election act of 1913 which provides the returns of the attorney general race shall be certified to the governor with all other results with the exception of those of the governor, comptroller general, secretary of state and treasurer, which shall be turned over to the state assembly at the following regular session after the election.

Judge F. Ross, of Macon, who recently formally requested the governor to swear him in as judge of the Bibb circuit and was denied, announced Tuesday that he will appeal to the courts to secure possession of the office. Governor Dorsey several months ago appointed Malcolm D. Jones to the judgeship for a term of four years. Judge Ross, who was also an applicant, contended the term should expire January 1, and entered his name on the ballot in the general election.

No other name appeared on the ticket for the judgeship and several days ago Judge Ross formally demanded that he be sworn in and the chief executive refused.

Will Appeal to Courts.

Macon, Ga., January 4.—(Special.) When informed this afternoon that Governor Dorsey had declined to issue him a commission as judge of the superior court of the Macon circuit, Judge H. A. Mathews, of the Macon circuit, calling on Judge Malcolm D. Jones to show cause why he should not vacate the office of judge in favor of Mr. Ross. In the event Judge Mathews decides against Mr. Ross, the latter stated, it is his intention to carry the case to the supreme court of Georgia.

NEAR FIGHT ENLIVENS POLICE COURT TRIAL

A clash between Attorney R. R. Jackson and Federal Agent George Hicks enlivened proceedings in the recorder's court Tuesday morning.

The near fight came during the trial of W. E. Knight, under charges of interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty. Attorney Jackson was defending Knight, and asked Agent Hicks a question which the latter considered as impugning his veracity.

Officer Hicks made a leap for Attorney Jackson, but was halted by court attaches, and an explanation from the attorney that he meant nothing personal appeased the court and Hicks.

Knight was charged with having interfered with officers in their efforts to apprehend C. V. Kidd, of 51 West Cain street, and to prevent the seizure of some liquor in Kidd's apartments. He was fined $15 and costs by the recorder.

Nystrom-Pascoe.

A very pretty wedding of interest to their many friends was that of William M. Pascoe, of Atlanta, formerly of Racine, Wis., and Miss Mabel Frances Nystrom, of Minneapolis, Minn., which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Ralph Wright, on Westwood avenue, West End park, on Saturday, January 1, the Rev. Karl L. Reiser officiating.

Following the ceremony luncheon was served, covers being laid for ten, immediately after which Mrs. and Mr. Pascoe left for a short wedding trip. They will be at home upon their return at 63 Peachtree place.

Wells-Brown Wedding At All Saints.

The marriage of Miss Sarah Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius O. Wells, to Mr. Charles Douglas Brown, will be an interesting event of Tuesday, January 4, taking place in the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at All Saints' church, Rev. W. W. Morrison officiating.

The bride was escorted by Mr. Ernest Ward Ramspeck, a recent bride, was matron of honor, and wore a gown of gray georgette crepe over pink, her hat of black velvet. Her flowers were pink roses and freesias.

Miss Lucile Wells was her sister's maid of honor and was gowned in pink tulle, made bouffant and worn with a picture hat of black. Her flowers were also pink roses and freesias.

The little ring bearer, Thomas Strickland, Jr., wore a white satin suit and carried the ring in the heart of an arm lily.

The groomsmen were Jefferson Edward Brown, brother of the groom, and Mr. Robert Morrison Morrison.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Julius O. Wells, with whom she entered the church, and was lovely in a tailored suit of French blue peach bloom with a moleskin collar. Her hat was a most becoming model of moleskin and velvet and her corsage bouquet was of valley lilies and orchids.

Miss Julius O. Wells, the mother of the bride, was gowned in black satin embroidered and worn with a black hat trimmed in feathers. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Mrs. Eloise Brown, mother of the groom, wore a gown of black georgette crepe over black satin, a small hat of black and a corsage of white roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for a wedding journey through Florida and will also visit in Savannah. They will make their home at 902 East North avenue on their return to Atlanta.

Honoring Miss King.

Miss Caroline King, a bride-elect of January, was honor guest at the tea given yesterday by Mrs. Robert H. Martin at her home on Peachtree circle. Quantities of pink, white and narcissi, placed in vases, adorned the rooms where the guests were received.

Mrs. Martin was gowned in black Chantilly lace over black satin, with French roses and the trimming.

Miss King was gowned in taupe colored velvet, with picture hat in velvet.

The tea table in the dining room had as a centerpiece a large silver vase filled with roses and narcissi and at one end was arranged a pretty garden hat of pink candy flared with candy flowers. Mrs. Frank Spratt poured tea.

To Give Lecture-Recital Today

Miss Marion Rous, who gives lecture recitals of unique distinction, and will be heard Wednesday morning before the Music Study club.

For the second time in as many years, Miss Marion Rous, the charming young southern artist, is to delight an Atlanta audience with one of her lecture recitals, when she appears Wednesday morning in the Morning Musicals of the Atlanta Music Study club at the annex of the Ponce de Leon Avenue Baptist church.

The program will begin promptly at 11 and will last for an hour and a half.

The subject chosen by the artist for this concert is "Program Music Old and New," in which she will discuss the modern tendency of music to follow the lines of program notes, and will give a number of exceedingly interesting illustrations of her subject from composers mainly of the present day and of modernist tendencies.

The program in full is as follows: The Battle of Prague—Anon. The Combat Between David and Goliath—Kuhnau. The Wheel of Omphalo—Saint-Saens. Partent—Mallpiero. Gardens in the Rain—Debussy. Poem After Omar Khayyam—Foyte. Sarcasme—Prokofieff. Dance Memories—Gossens. Funeral March for a Rich Aunt—Lord Berners.

The Swan—Palmgren.

Br'er Rabbit—MacDowell. Tempo di Minuetto—Zanella. "Vanished days. It is the eve of great events. In golden, light-filled halls youthful desire languishes in the mazes of the dance; through the cold and misty street so endless wailings, the roars and imprecations of a contrasting wretchedness."

Scherzo—Griffes. "From the Palace of Enchantment there issued into the night sounds of unearthly revelry. Troops of gent and other fantastic spirits danced grotesquely to a music now wild and mysterious, now wild and joyous."

The growing fame of Miss Rous in her chosen field of the lecture-recital and the fine equipment, both technical and intellectual, which she brings to her work, will make the recital this morning one of the most interesting of the season, and a capacity crowd is expected to pay tribute to the Florida musician.

The concert is open only to members of the Atlanta Music Study club; but those who do not yet hold membership cards can secure them at the door this morning. The annual dues are $2, and in the series of Morning Musicals yet to be given, Mrs. Edward MacDowell and Paul Ryan are yet to be heard, in addition to the regular programs of the club.

One of the brightest occasions of last week was the party at which Dr. and Mrs. J. Sam Guy entertained Dr. Guy's Sunday school class of the Druid Hills Presbyterian church, at their home in Druid Hills.

The entire lower floor of the spacious home was thrown together, and the color scheme of red and green was effectively carried out in the decorations, less and bonbons. Huge silver baskets held red carnations and poinsettias, while tiny Christmas trees gave an additional holiday touch.

Among those present were Misses Florie Margaret Guy, Dorris Thurmond, Juanita Forbis, Helen Hair, Blanche Sisler, Pearl Johnson, Isabelle Sewell, Lucile Hollingsworth, Laura Bucher Hooks, Jennie Falks, Leola Baldwin, Frances and Lora Lee Turner.

Plans for Annual Grand Opera Will Be Announced Shortly

The active and general interest in Atlanta's annual season of opera is expressing itself for the past several days in numerous inquiries as to the reason why there has been no announcement for the coming of this supreme organization for its usual April engagement.

The illness of the president of the Music Festival association, Colonel W. L. Peel, has postponed the regular meeting of the association, which would pass upon this important business, but from other members of the board comes the announcement that the meeting will be held as soon as Colonel Peel's health, which is on the mend, permits his presiding.

Colonel Peel, like the greatest star of the Metropolitan Opera company, is suffering from pleurisy, but again like Mr. Caruso, it is announced that Colonel Peel is improving, and the engagement of the Metropolitan company, for the spring season of 1921, with all necessary details of the guarantee fund, the opera to be presented and the personnel of the company contributing to the Atlanta engagement, may be expected in a short time.

Miss Perdue's Tea.

Miss Wilmetine Perdue's tea at the Piedmont Driving club yesterday was a delightful affair, commencing Miss Hallie Crawford, at whose wedding on Saturday she will be an attendant.

The little company of twenty-two included the ladies of the bridal party and a few other close friends. They were seated for a dainty repast at a table decorated in pink and white. A silver vase was filled with them; pink candles, unshaded, burned in silver candlesticks and all the color details were pink.

Miss Perdue wore a becoming gown of rose georgette with black velvet hat. Miss Crawford was a smart figure in a blue georgette gown trimmed with bands of velvet and a big blue velvet hat.

SURE WAY TO GET RID OF BLACKHEADS

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads and that is to dissolve them.

To do this get two ounces of calomel powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads briskly—wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear, leaving the parts without any mark whatever. Blackheads are simply a mixture of dust and dirt and secretions from the body that form in the pores of the skin—pinching and squeezing only cause irritation, make large pores, and do not get them out after they become hard. The calomel powder and the water simply dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition. Anybody troubled with these unsightly blemishes should certainly try this simple method.—(adv.)

Now Gets 48 Eggs A Day Instead of 3

Mr. Vincent Cured His Hens of the Laying Habit. Easily Done.

"My eggs supply has increased wonderfully. Early in January, I started using Don Sung. I had been getting about 3 eggs every other day from 70 hens. By the end of January I was getting 30 eggs a day. In two weeks more I was getting 48 a day."—G. W. Vincent, South, Ky.

Mr. Vincent's results, in January, prove that you can get the eggs when eggs are high. It's no trouble and costs nothing to try.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs, and gets the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather.

Don Sung can be obtained promptly from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send 50c or $1.00 (including war tax) for a package by mail prepaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 214 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.—(adv.)

LARSEN DISPROVES TINKHAM'S CHARGE

trict of Columbia committee a few years back along with Congressman Carl Wilson, of Georgia. When the latter introduced a bill to prevent the "intermarriage of blacks and whites in the District, following a notorious and disgraceful example. Tinkham fought it, asked for a hearing, declared he desired to introduce to the committee several prominent citizens of Boston as opponents of the measure, and on the day of the hearing produced three colored men from the Massachusetts metropolis as his "backers" in the fight. This is only a side glance at this member who is now leading a forlorn fight for another "Force bill."

FLORIDA SENDS AFFIDAVITS

Washington, January 4.—Affidavits, including a number made by negroes, were presented by the Florida congressional delegation today to the house census committee in denial of charges that negroes were willfully prevented from voting in Florida. The charges were made before the committee last week by representatives of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People during consideration of the reapportionment bill.

In answer to the charge of W. F. White, assistant secretary of the association, that two negroes named Jones were whipped at Live Oak, G. W. Sanders, John L. Jones, and W. R. Robinson, negro members of the republican campaign committee in that county, said "no such occurrence has taken place in Live Oak or Suwanee county. The negroes here went to the polls and voted and we were told by W. H. Lyle, sheriff of the county, that they would be protected in voting; that on the day of the general election in November, as far as we know, nothing was said to the negroes, men or women, to try to keep them from voting, and several hundred did vote in the county that day."

Continuing, the affidavit said: "We have resided in Suwanee county for some years and have been participated in several general elections where the negroes did not get to the polls. The general election in November was no different from previous elections, everything being quiet and orderly that day."

Deny Incident.

An affidavit signed by ten citizens, nearly all of whom were incidentally officers, declared that the alleged did not take place, and added: "The polls were crowded with negroes, men and women, and were not interfered with in any way."

Sheriff Lyle in an affidavit also denied any such occurrences as charged. He said he was at the polls all day as were the deputies, and that the negroes voted without molestation, some six or seven hundred of them. F. Kirkland, marshal, also made affidavit to that effect.

Sheriff Scott Gregory, of Quincy, Fla., telegraphed that it was "absolutely untrue" that Dr. W. S. Stevens, a negro physician, had been ordered to leave town. "Can produce Dr. Stevens' affidavit that all reports concerning him are untrue," the telegram declared. Representative Clark announced he would prevent the affidavit of Dr. Stevens to the committee when it reaches him.

Story of Riot.

Representative Clark also presented a letter from Joseph H. Jones, state's attorney at Orlando, relative to the Ocoee riot. Mr. Jones said that after the riot he saw only three dead negroes and two dead whites at Ocoee. One negro also, he said, was hanged at Orlando by a mob, making a total of four negroes and two whites killed as a result of the riot. "I think it probable," he said, "that two other negroes were killed."

Mr. Jones said twenty-one witnesses had been examined before the grand jury and that he was sending Mr. Clark a copy of the jury's presentment.

C. C. Hoak, of Philadelphia, representing the American Proportional Representation League, urged the committee to make no reapportionment bill to include an optional system whereby the states could elect their congressmen on proportional voting.

NO INTERVENTION IN CURA PLANNED

sending of an American to Cuba on a mission of the nature of General Crowder's, but it is understood that in his discussion of the matter with Mr. Davis he did not attempt to conceal his apprehension that the action would be construed as a step preliminary to intervention. He was assured that neither intervention nor the supervision of elections contemplated but it was made plain to him that the United States considered the economic, political and financial situation in Cuba at the point in Cuba where the United States regarded the whole situation as one warranting the friendly offer of assistance.

Interesting Situation.

President Menocal's term of office expires May 20. This appears now a probability that unless special steps are taken the official selection of his successor will be determined by that time, and it was asserted in that event, a situation would be created that would be exceedingly embarrassing for both governments. The congestion of freight on the Havana docks, the extension of the moratorium and the demand for money with which to finance the sugar crop have resulted, it was told here, in making the Cuban situation one of

WAR FINANCE BILL NOW BECOMES LAW

Jority is required by law to approve the application for a loan. While the present board of advisers constitutes a quorum, officials asserted Secretary Houston, who is of-ficio chairman, would not be able to devote his time exclusively to corporation matters, as the investigation of the adequacy of securities would require. The other two directors, Angus W. McLean, who is now managing director, and George R. Cooke, who is now acting as secretary, would thus be unable to act upon applications for loans.

Two-Month Delay

Presidential nomination to the board requires confirmation of the senate, and the question also arose as to whether the republican majority of the senate would depart in such cases from the policy of confirming no nominations at this session.

Finance corporation officials stated that in any event it probably would be two months before the first advance could be approved. Funds for making the loans must be raised, officials explained, and the methods of providing this money determined upon. The corporation has a balance of about $275,000,000 with the treasury, but Secretary Houston has taken the stand that the money should not be used for making advances to private concerns.

SENATE COMMITTEE TO HOLD HEARINGS

open the hearings was made by Senator Gerry, democrat, Rhode Island, and it was given the support of the republican members in addition to Chairman Penrose, who was joined by another republican leader, Calder, of New York.

Issue Statement

Senator Penrose after the meeting issued a statement in which he said that both the soldier bonus and tariff measures "undoubtedly would be reported to the senate."

He declined, however, to offer a prediction as to what action would be taken in the senate, but opponents of the tariff bill were confident that it never would become law.

One of the first of the many expected efforts to change rates carried in the house bill was indicated during the day in the presentation in the senate by Senator Spencer, republican, Missouri, of a substitute for house tariffs on zinc and zinc products. The substitute would place import duties of 1 1/2 cents a pound on zinc ores containing under 25 per cent of metal; 2 cents per pound on zinc ores containing more than 25 per cent zinc; 2 cents on zinc in blocks, pigs or other bulky forms, and 2 1/2 cents on zinc sheets.

Nitrate Bill Amendment

Washington, January 4.—An amendment to the nitrate bill providing for the operation of the Muscle Shoals, Ala., plant, now before the senate, was introduced by Senator Harris today, which would make it mandatory that farmers should have preference in buying the products of the plant. Under the bill as introduced the fertilizer could be sold to producers and users without restrictions.

Annual Sales Convention Gets Under Way in Atlanta Tuesday.

The 165 Coca-Cola salesmen and managers of twelve branch factories assembled in Atlanta for the annual sales convention from all over the United States, Canada and Cuba entered upon the serious study of production and public relations Tuesday afternoon under the leadership of Dr. W. P. Heath, vice president in charge of production, and Harold Hirsch, general counsel, concluding the day's program with a theater party at "Lightning."

The morning had been devoted to preliminary addresses of welcome delivered by Asa C. Candler, founder of the Coca-Cola company, and Thomas K. Glenn, one of the directors of the company. Mr. Candler also conducted a tour of inspection of the company's new factory at North Avenue and Plum street. The convention will last four days.

Phases of Production.

Dr. Heath dealt with all phases of production, treating the subject from three angles: Syrup, cooperation and carbonation. Mr. Hirsch spoke on "Good Will, Adulteration, Dilution and Substitution." Charles H. Candler, president of the company, presided.

Wednesday's program is in charge of Harrison Jones, vice president in charge of sales, and will be devoted entirely to salesmanship.

One of the interesting events of the meeting will be the presentation of the 1921 newspaper and magazine advertising campaign by W. C. SOLDIERS INVOLVED IN GORDON THEFTS

Pat, Paul and C. B. Wiley Are Held in $500 Bonds. Men Have Confessed, Say Officers.

This evening at eight o'clock in the North Avenue Presbyterian church, lower auditorium, there will be an interesting address by Stephen A. Haboush from the Holy Land. Mr. Haboush speaks English fluently, having been educated in the mission schools of his own land and of America. He will be in costume and will bring a stirring message from his native hills of Galilee.

The "dhole," the red wild dog of northern India, is a most dangerous creature. Hunting in packs, it will attack any living thing, even the jungle king, the tiger.

That at least ten soldiers were involved in an elaborate system of robbery was indicated at the hearings yesterday before Judge Collier Carter of Pat Wiley, Paul Wiley and C. B. Wiley, charged with theft from Camp Gordon.

Federal agents assert that this systematic robbery has cost the government thousands of dollars.

Judge Carter fixed the men's bonds at $500 each, after a conference was held between Pierce K. Burns, their counsel and agents of the department of justice, in which the three Wileys are said to have pledged their aid in the arrest of alleged confederates.

The men are said to have confessed theft of various articles from the army post. C. E. Wiley, a farmer living five miles from Tucker admitted giving liquor to soldiers in exchange for army blankets, it is claimed.

Pat and Paul Wiley, brothers, and cousins of C. B. Wiley, were arrested at the camp Sunday. In an automobile said to have been loaded with stolen goods. The search of their home followed, and while investigation of their premises was being conducted by federal agents, C. B. Wiley, it is stated, drove up in an automobile containing stolen goods. He was arrested, and his home also searched, with the result, it is stated, that government property was found.

stantaneous market the year round," said Mr. Mauff today. "The buyers and the sellers are always in the air at all times in touch and the result is a stabilization of prices, a leveling of the market and a sharing of other benefits which accrue in an open market where untrammelled competition and free trade are demanded on the law of supply and demand. Before the grain exchange system was developed, grain growers were confronted with the same conditions as those in Kentucky today. In time, I think the thousands of small producers will compel a marketing organization comparable to grain exchanges. The wool industry is headed that way and there is no doubt of the sentiment for arranging for trading in wool futures on open exchanges."

Zimbalist, Noted Violinist, to Play Here Monday Night

With a concert by Erem Zimbalist, the famous Russian-American violinist, following close upon the recital of Fritz Kreisler, the Austrian, Atlanta lovers of music will have unusual opportunity of comparing two of the greatest virtuosos of the violin appearing in one season. Zimbalist is to play at the Auditorium next Monday night, under the direction of the Evans-Salter Musical Bureau.

Zimbalist is especially noted for the elegance and polish of his execution, the great heights of expression to which he rises, and his scholarly treatment of the classics of the great composers. He has been called "the violinist's violinist" as an expression of the esteem in which he is held by his brother artists. Mr. Zimbalist has been before the American public for ten years, with steadily increasing popularity.

Seats for the Zimbalist recital will go on sale tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at the store of the Cable Piano Company.

At schools and colleges in the United States, more than 5,000 students are taking a regulation artillery course.

PLAN TO ENTERTAIN PROMINENT BAKERS

Meeting of Atlanta Association Held at Chamber Hall Tuesday Night.

Plans for the reorganization of the Atlanta Association of the Baking Industry were the outgrowth of a meeting of a number of leading Atlanta bakers at the chamber of commerce Tuesday night.

The meeting was called by LeRoy Rogers, of the American Bakeries company, to plan for the entertainment of the executive committee of the Southeastern Association of the Baking Industry when that body meets in Atlanta January 18 to make arrangements for its annual convention.

Tentative arrangements were made for entertaining the visitors at a luncheon at the Piedmont hotel, to be followed by a theater party in the evening. The committee of five local bakers and allied tradesmen appointed to take the matter in hand, also were instructed to look into the matter of reorganizing the bakers of Atlanta.

Walter W. Brown, publisher of New South Baker, was named chairman of the committee, and when he declined, this post was accepted by L. A. Ruppberg, of the Fleischmann company. Other members of the committee are: A. B. Marvin, Perfection Baking company; A. Morse, Quality Shop, and J. H. Nichols, Silverman's bakery.

A meeting of the committee at the chamber of commerce Friday night will be followed by a general meeting of the Atlanta bakers at the same place next Tuesday night, when the matter of reorganization is expected to be carried out.

Cradock Goin, editor of New South Baker, was named acting secretary of the temporary organization. Among those attending last night's meeting were M. Taylor, European bakery; W. E. Ballenger, Mau's bakery; S. Hamburger, Oswald and Taube company; A. J. Hicks, Bessie's; C. W. Foster, Schlesinger-Meyer Baking company; and Charles F. Freiligh, Atlanta Baking company.

January 23 Is Designated As "Inter-Racial" Sunday

Sunday, January 23, has been designated "Inter-Racial Sunday" throughout the south and will be observed in the pulpits of all denominations, according to announcements made by the state inter-racial committee of the Y. M. C. A.

Letters from this committee, Governor Hugh M. Dorsey, and executive board of the Southern Baptist convention have been sent to all ministers requesting their co-operation. The state committee's letter is signed by Dr. M. Ashby Jones, chairman. Hugh M. Dorsey, John J. Egan, M. S. Hodgson, Athens; H. M. McIntosh, Albany; M. L. Brittain, Atlanta; John Shannon, Commerce; Marvin Underwood, Atlanta; F. R. McCain, Decatur.

Letter of Committee.

There is to be a south-wide observance of "Inter-Racial Sunday" this year, and in harmony with the other states the Georgia state committee has designated Sunday, January 23, 1932, as "Inter-Racial Sunday."

Herein we hand you letters which will give you certain facts concerning the inter-racial movement. To these we would respectfully invite your careful attention.

We recognize that the best way to reach the heart and the best of the best people of our state is through the ministers of the various churches and we therefore most earnestly urge you to give your people at least a summary of the facts herein contained. Many ministers will doubtless give an entire sermon to this matter, which is the heart of the matter, and a minister can by use of that "farther sympathy" call the attention of his people to the needs of negroes of Africa, it is surely proper by use of that "farther sympathy" to call their attention to the needs of the people in his own state.

We are convinced that it is high time to direct the Christian thought and to stir up the Christian conscience of America to the needs of the negro in the southland.

May we ask you to please indicate on the enclosed postcard just what we may count on you to do? Thanking you in advance for your hearty co-operation in this matter.

Letter From Dorsey.

Governor Dorsey's letter follows:

Deeply interested and anxious for the creation of such conditions as will make for a better relation between the races in our beloved state, I am taking the liberty of requesting that you will observe in your church the Sunday set apart by the inter-racial committee as "Inter-Racial Sunday." I would add my voice to that of the committee, urging that you should appeal to the conscience of our people for more even justice in our courts, for better housing and sanitary conditions, for better school facilities, for better traveling conditions, and for more patience and self-control, growing out of the spirit of the Christ, the association of the two races.

Baptists' Letter.

The letter from the executive board of the Georgia Baptist convention follows:

The state inter-racial commission of Georgia, which for its sole purpose the securing of a better understanding between the colored and white peoples of our state, is requesting the white ministers of Georgia, on Sunday, January 23, 1932, to preach to their people on the subject of race relations based on the principles of the Gospel of Christ.

The announced purpose of the commission is a most worthy one, and the success of the program set forth is evidenced by the fact that the initiative of any effort to apply the principles and program of the inter-racial commission is entirely in the hands of the local Christian leadership of each church. It gives me great pleasure to commend to my Baptist brethren the message that they are to deliver in this effort to secure genuine, Christian relations between the people of both races in their communities, which is an end that every true Christian should desire to see accomplished.

I am particularly anxious to know what American women are thinking.

"Of course it is impossible for me to extend invitations to everybody, and I know that there are hundreds of brilliant people in every state whom I cannot help but overlook in my limited acquaintance."

"I should be very glad to come and share with you. It has occurred to me that it would be much more convenient for you to meet me here than to come here during the very cold weather. I am expecting to be in Atlanta on the 23rd of January, and if you are sufficiently interested and can conveniently come to St. Augustine, I will be more than happy to meet you there. I enclose a card telling you my precise date of opening conference in St. Augustine, but I assume it will be very close to the last days of the month."

"It pleases me to know of your interest in this great question. Yours very truly,"

"WARREN G. HARDING."

MRS. FELTON TO MEET HARDING IN FLORIDA

Will Confer With President-Elect Upon the Views of American Women.

Cartersville, Ga., January 4.—(Special.)—Mrs. William H. Felton, of Cartersville, has accepted an invitation extended by President-elect Warren G. Harding to meet him for a conference at St. Augustine, Fla., or some other point, that may later be designated as headquarters during his southern visit.

The letter of invitation from Mr. Harding is as follows:

"Dear Mrs. Felton, I am very glad to hear of your interest in the cause of American women. I am sure that your views will be of great value to me. I am expecting to be in St. Augustine, Fla., on the 23rd of January, and if you are sufficiently interested and can conveniently come to St. Augustine, I will be more than happy to meet you there. I enclose a card telling you my precise date of opening conference in St. Augustine, but I assume it will be very close to the last days of the month."

"It pleases me to know of your interest in this great question. Yours very truly,"

"WARREN G. HARDING."

VOTE RECOUNT ON MICHIGAN PRIMARY OPENS

Washington, January 4.—Behind barred doors, the senate elections committee began today its recount of the ballots cast in the Michigan senatorial primary contest between Senator Newberry and Henry Ford.

A force of twenty-five tellers, attorneys for both sides and supervisors officiated.

The recount is expected to require several weeks. It is a step toward the necessity of a recount of charges and counter charges between the candidates. During the recount it is planned to give statements of changes shown by the tabulation.

CLOTHES FOR MEN AT REDUCED PRICE

Chicago, January 4.—The market for men's spring and summer clothing was opened in Chicago today and manufacturers offered suits much that of the winter season.

One of the leading factors in the ready-made trade quoted the manufacturers' price at $45 for a suit compared to $40 last fall and $35 a year ago. Fine blue serge suits are offered at $40, compared to $45 of last fall and $40 one year ago. A standard worsted suit is now wholesaled at $34, compared to $45 of last spring of 1930. The very finest worsted suits made in America are now offered at $52, compared to $58 price last fall. Fine worsted trousers are now $9, compared to $12.50 last spring. Prices for summer goods, such as mohairs and broadcloths, are also lower. A suit of $16.50, compared to $18.50 last year.

Buyers from every part of the country are flocking to the city for the most part liquidated goods bought at peak prices, and from now on clothing will be retailed on the new level.

THOUSANDS OF ACTORS REPORTED STRANDED

New York, January 4.—Five thousand actors and actresses are unemployed in this city, and many others are stranded at distant points, victims of widespread failure of road companies during the past year.

This statement was made today by the Actors Equity association, which announced it had undertaken the task of securing the unfortunate stage folk, especially those thrown on their own resources in other cities.

The greater proportion of road failures, the association asserted, was due to irresponsible managers, who entered the profession during the war, when the financing of the theatrical production was comparatively easy.

From September, 1919, to the end of 1930, more than thirty companies failed on the road, the statement said.

COAL INVESTIGATION HEARING POSTPONED

Washington, January 4.—Hearings in the senate coal investigation committee were postponed until Wednesday by the committee.

Chairman Calder announced that they would continue tomorrow and on Thursday, and that Lieutenant Colonel Barney, quartermaster corps officer, in charge of war department coal purchases, and Colonel D. B. Wentz, president of the National Coal association, would be the first witnesses called.

POLICE WOUNDED BY CORK BOMBERS

Martial Law Area in Ireland Extended by Proclamation Issued at Dublin.

Cork, January 4.—Another bombing incident resulting in the wounding of six constables, followed by rifle and machine gun firing, and the wounding of several civilians, occurred here tonight.

A detachment of police was crossing Parrell bridge at about 7:30 o'clock, when a bomb exploded among them. The bridge is near police headquarters, from which a large force promptly turned out with rifles and machine guns. These, it is stated, were turned upon the quays and neighboring streets. Two women and three or four men were wounded, but not fatally. None of them, so far as is known, was connected with the outrage.

MARTIAL LAW AREA EXTENDED

Dublin, January 4.—An official proclamation extends the martial law area to Counties Clare, Waterford, Wexford and Kilkenny, and to the city of Waterford, effective today.

Martial law was proclaimed by Dublin Castle over the city and county of Cork, the city and county of Limerick, and the counties of Tipperary and Kerry, on December 10. Dublin city and the county of Dublin were not included in the martial law district.

In an announcement to the house of commons the same day, Premier Lloyd-George, declaring the intention of the British government to put down lawlessness in Ireland, said that it conditions the extension of the martial law area would be extended.

CURATE SENTENCED

Waterford, Ireland, January 3.—A Catholic curate, Rev. P. H. O'Connell, has been sentenced to two years at hard labor by a court-martial, for possessing seditious literature and documents.

ARGENTINE NOTE ON TARIFF BILL

Buenos Aires, January 4.—Consideration of the effects of the Argentine products of tariff legislation pending in the United States was requested of Secretary of State Colby in a letter which the Buenos Aires stock exchange delivered to him during his visit here and made public today.

The stock exchange asked Mr. Colby to counsel his government on the line of conduct to pursue which, the letter said, should consist of encouraging commercial intercourse with Argentina, eliminating all obstacles. The communication, written by President Guillermo Peron, of the exchange, was couched in the friendliest terms.

It pointed out a common interest of the United States and Argentina, stating that these imposed the necessity of avoiding any economic struggle which might arise. It asserted that emergency laws never are able to solve the economic problem, merely acting as palliatives which, instead of overcoming the difficulty, aggravate the situation.

Secretary Colby and his party left Buenos Aires last night on their return trip to the United States. The secretary boarded the Uruguayan cruiser Uruguay, which was carrying a transfer to the battleship Florida, which is waiting in Uruguayan waters. The voyage to be without stop.

Before leaving, Mr. Colby told the Associated Press that he was tremendously impressed by the cordiality of the welcome extended him at the capital of Brazil, Uruguay and Argentina.

President Trigoyen returned Secretary Colby's official call yesterday afternoon, remaining for more than an hour. This is said to have been longer than any similar visit he has paid a foreign envoy during his administration.
